Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Vigésimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

October 15, 2017 | 15 de octubre del 2017

From the Desk of Fr. Bart

Twenty-eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time

For a reflection on our Sacred Scripture Readings please see Lawrence's article on page 3.

Our Lady of Fatima:

100th Anniversary of the Miracle of the Sun

May 13, 2017 was the 100th Anniversary of the first Fatima Apparition. On that date in 1917, Mary appeared for the first time to three shepherd children. The apparitions continued for the next six months, culminating with the "Miracle of the Sun" on October 13, 1917. This miracle was witnessed by 70,000 people who had joined the three child-visionaries. This past Friday, October 13, 2017 marked the 100th Anniversary of the final Fatima Apparition.

After the miracle O Dia, the newspaper in the Portuguese capital Lisbon, reported that "at midday by the sun, the rain stopped. The sky, pearly grey in color, illuminated the vast arid landscape with a strange light. The sun had a transparent gauzy veil so that the eye could easily be fixed on it. The grey mother-of-pearl tone turned into a sheet of silver which broke up as the clouds were parted and the silver sun, enveloped in the same gauzy grey light, was seen to whirl and turn in the circle of broken clouds. A cry went up from every mouth and people fell on their knees in the muddy ground..."

Many witnesses corroborated the phenomenon of the whirling, dancing colorful sun which at one moment seemed to be terrifyingly plunging toward earth, with the crowds "expecting the end of the world to come at any moment" one witness reported. After that moment, the once-soggy and muddy crowd discovered that they were completely dry.

This miracle was the proof for the people that Mary truly did appear to the three children and supports one of the important messages of the apparitions that "even if humankind has separated God from their existence, God is present in human history and doesn't abandon humanity." The miracle broke the darkness of Portugal's atheist regimes. Pope Francis visited Fatima last May and canonized two of the child visionaries, who died just a few years after the visions. The essence of the message of Fatima is a call to conversion, penance, and praying the rosary daily for world peace, something that is as important in our life today as it was when Mary appeared in 1917. This 100-Year Anniversary is a great opportunity for us to revisit our devotion to Our Lady of Fatima and re-incorporate Mary's message into our lives today.

ME 25 Parish Survey

Next weekend at all of our Masses, we will be conducting a survey during Mass to assess the engagement level of parishioners. This survey is an extremely important tool to help us understand where we are at as a parish today. In two years or so, we will take the survey again and measure if we have increased our engagement in parish life.

As we begin to embark on our New Vision for our parish, we need to be able to measure our progress. Please, I urge you, to take the few minutes to complete the survey and help us make the most accurate assessment we can. This all depends on your involvement. Thank you for your participation.

Our New Vision for the Parish that we are mapping out for the next five years will help us to become an Evangelizing Parish made up of

Prayer for Life

May God grant us the eyes to see
and the hearts to love
those who need us to walk with them
in times of suffering;
We pray to the Lord:

Para que Dios nos conceda los ojos para ver y el corazón para amar
a los que nos necesitan para caminar con ellos
en tiempos de sufrimiento;
roguemos al Señor:

STA Singles Gathering

Join the St. Thomas Aquinas Singles for our monthly dinner, this month at Babe's Bar and Grill, 5614 Schroeder Rd, Madison on Tuesday, October 17 at 6 PM RSVP by Sunday, October 15 to Jill at 1-608-604-3070 or jillymoose18@yahoo.com.

Social Justice Outreach Funding Requests Being Accepted

Our STA parish budget includes funds for outreach to assist charities involved with social justice. Parish members who are advocates for an organization may request funding. The Outreach Funding Review Board is currently accepting requests for this year's review. If you would like to have your organization included please contact Kathy Taddy at 831-1120 or pktaddy@tds.net. She can give you more information about the review process and provide the request forms.

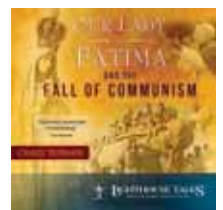

Lighthouse CDs

Our Lady of Fatima and the Fall of Communism by Craig Turner

This CD, along with other titles, can be found in the back of the gathering area outside our library.

Kindly donate $3 each, or make checks payable to the parish. Please consider sharing your CD once you've listened to it!

Craig Turner, a well-respected journalist and researcher, shares the unmistakable connection between the apparitions of our Blessed Mother at Fatima in 1917 and the fall of communism in Europe more than seventy years later. This talk is sure to provide a greater awareness of the motherly help and protection that Mary offers mankind through her powerful intercession. The importance of entrusting ourselves to her care has never been so evident as it is today.

Reflection from Our Parish Seminarian, Lawrence Oparaji

Today's Gospel reminds me of the hymn "All Are Welcome." Indeed all are invited into God's house. Christ died for all of us so that we can be welcomed into His house and partake in the banquet He has set before us. The problem however, is with us; all are welcome but not all want to accept this invitation. We refuse God's invitation by being too busy to come to God's mountain (the church), we do this when we have no time to pray, when we fail to develop a closer relationship with God, and this leads us to an inability to be able to recognize God's invitation to us and accept it accordingly.

Towards the end of the Gospel, we encounter something strange: the King who wants to invite all, who says all are welcome, now turns away a guest for not wearing the right clothes. How could this be, how could he be so mean? Well this man, obviously, did not follow instructions, he was not properly prepared for this feast; we are all invited but we have to wear the garments of faith (which by the way are free garments we are given by virtue of Christ's passion, death and resurrection). We have to live lives that are in keeping with people who partake in the banquet of the Lord. This is not easy but God's grace is there for us. We have to learn to ask for God's grace and remember that on our own we are not worthy and can do nothing, but in and through Christ we can do all things.

Today we are gathered around the altar of the Lord to celebrate a banquet, a banquet of thanksgiving - The Holy Eucharist. We are all gathered because we want to respond positively to God's invitation to us - to eat the life-giving bread and drink from the life-giving cup and because we believe in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. May the Eucharist we receive help us to live lives worthy of those to be invited into the eternal banquet of God in heaven. May we know the joy and peace that Christ promises to all who respond positively to His invitation.

Anointing Mass and Luncheon, October 18

Are you suffering from a chronic illness, facing physical challenges, expecting surgery, or just in need of healing for some aspect of your life? Please join us for a special Mass and the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick in church on Wednesday, October 18 at 11:00 AM. Following Mass, all attending are invited to a luncheon in the social hall. Please contact Erik Gyr 608-833-2600 by October 16 if you are planning to attend the luncheon.

Fr. Bart's article is continued from the previous page missionary disciples. This new vision is our parish's response to the Crisis in Discipleship in our Catholic Church—declining Mass attendance, young people leaving the Church, and decreased relevance of the Church in people's lives. Our vision is a way for us to respond to the call of our last four Popes to be part of the New Evangelization, sharing our love for Jesus Christ with our brothers and sisters who have fallen away from the Church.

As we begin to embark on this new vision for our parish, your participation is crucial in these beginning days. The more we participate in the initial steps in these early months, the more success we will have in our mission to "Love God, Love Others, and Make Disciples!"

GROWING AN ENGAGED CHURCH GALLUP

Member Engagement Survey (the ME25)

How can we best accomplish what God has in mind for us? Are the things we do at the parish helping people to live out their faith? How can we encourage people to use their gifts and talents to love God, love others, and make disciples? These are important questions, and we are constantly talking about them here at St. Thomas Aquinas.

Every member aged 18 and older and anyone who considers him or herself a part of our parish will have the opportunity to share his or her opinions about some of the key aspects of our parish life together. The purpose of this survey is to help us identify areas of strength in our parish and areas where we can improve. The survey will be administered and then tabulated by Gallup, an independent research company. Your opinions will be completely confidential. After we have received our parish results from Gallup, we will share with you what we learn about how we can more effectively accomplish the mission Jesus has entrusted to us.

You can also complete the survey online from our homepage at www.stamadison.org using the access code: DA4021D now until October 22. It only takes a few minutes to share your honest thoughts and opinions with us. The higher our participation rate, the more helpful our results will be as we go forward.

International Combined Collection

Next weekend, October 21-22, the International Combined Collection will be conducted in our parish. This collection combines the following individual collections:

- World Mission Support
- Catholic Relief Services
- Church in Central & Eastern Europe
- Church in Latin America
- Peter's Pence
- Pastoral Solidarity for the Church in Africa

Your support of these collections is critical. Please take this week to pray about what you can provide. A brochure and envelope are in this bulletin for your donation next weekend.

Persons with Disabilities Update

On October 1, at the Persons with Disabilities Brunch we learned of the many accomplishments of our parishioners. We are so proud of them all! Here is a partial list of their accomplishments:

- Making new friends
- Being brave during medical procedures
- Working in an office making copies and filing
- Getting medals competing in Special Olympics
- Getting paid to play video games by participating in an Autism study

Thank you to all who attended and shared their successes from the past year! We were able to offer this event due to a grant from The Diocese of Madison Apostolate to Persons with Disabilities.

Discipleship with Holly Irving

Discipleship Moment

“My God will supply whatever you need...” - Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a Stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a Stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

(International Catholic Stewardship Council)

Discipleship Is ...

Discipleship is believing what Saint Paul wrote in his letter to the Philippians in today's second reading— “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me” (4:13). Most people define themselves either by their problems or their possibilities. Fearful people wake up each morning ensnared by their problems. Christians wake up reflecting on their possibilities with confidence and hope. Take some time this week to reflect on the following questions: What challenges do you back away from because you doubt that you are up to them? What would you attempt tomorrow if you were sure God would help you? (Based on thoughts from ICSC)

Ministry of the Week

The parish of St. Thomas Aquinas would like to recognize STACKS for Love (St. Thomas Aquinas Crocheting and Knitting for Love) who give of their time and talents to make blanket, hats, mittens, and scarves for those in need physically or spiritually.

IRA Rollover

Required to take a distribution from your IRA? Consider using this distribution as a gift to St. Thomas Aquinas Parish. You could save on taxes! Please contact your tax advisor or plan administrator to learn more about the Charitable IRA Rollover.

Children's Envelopes

Children's Envelopes to put their offerings into the basket in front of church are given out during Religious Education. If your child did not get envelopes, they can be found in the Gathering Area in a basket. Children of all ages are encouraged to use the envelopes.

Parents of College Kids!

The parish would like to reach out to your children who are away at college. Can you please share their name, college, mailing address, and email address? You can email them to Holly at holly@stamadison.org.

Music & Liturgy
By Greg Buchberger,
Director of Music Ministries

Throughout the year, our singers and choir members spend many hours in rehearsal in order to help us to pray well during our Masses. While it is the primary role of the choir to support and enhance the sung prayer of those gathered for prayer, it is also the role of the choir to provide music to help those gathered to enter more deeply into prayer.

Here are the texts of a couple of the pieces that both the Parish Choir and the Choristers have been working on this fall. By the way... there is still time to join both the Parish Choir and the Choristers! We will be starting our Christmas preparations soon!

Be With Me

Be with me when I am in trouble,
 be with me when I am afraid;
 Be with me when I am alone, be with me Lord, I pray.
 Stand beside me, Walk beside me,
 Give me comfort, Make me stronger,
 Raise me higher, when I am in trouble,
 raise me higher when I am afraid;
 Raise me higher when I am alone,
 raise me higher Lord, I pray.

A Prayer for Humility

Give us humble hearts to praise you,
 and listening ears to hear your voice,
 willing hands to serve you,
 thankful spirits to rejoice.
 Lord of all, we adore you,
 and we bring this prayer before you.
 Create in us, humble hearts!

Funeral Preparations

Preplanning your funeral is a wonderful gift to your loved ones. It is a real comfort to the bereaved to know that our prayer at the funeral Mass gives voice to the faith of the one they have lost. We encourage you to discuss your wishes with your family and to share your favorite scripture passages, songs and prayers. The parish offers resources for preplanning. If you would like to discuss your options contact me to talk about the considerations. Your family will be grateful! You can reach me at erik@stamadison.org or 833-2600
