Fourth Sunday of Lent
March 11, 2018

Cuarto Domingo de la Cuaresma
11 de Marzo de 2018

From the Desk of Fr. Bart

The Fourth Sunday of Lent - Laetare Sunday

The fourth, or middle, Sunday of Lent, gets its name from the first words in Latin of the Entrance Antiphon at Mass, "Laetare Jerusalem" - "Rejoice, O Jerusalem."

At the middle point of Lent, the Church permits special signs of joy, intended to encourage the faithful in their course through the season of penance on this Sunday. These signs consist of the use of flowers on the altar, and the organ at Mass, and rose-colored vestments are also allowed instead of purple. Other names applied to this Sunday are: Refreshment Sunday, Mothering Sunday, Mid-Lent Sunday, or Rose Sunday. Laetare Sunday provides us encouragement as we progress toward the end of Lent. Today is a small break from the penitential season that reminds us of the joy and hope ahead at Easter. For a reflection on this Sunday's Readings, please see Lawrence's article on page 3.

Lenten Practices and Devotions: Invite Jesus to be a part of your life!

Pope Francis reminds us, "Lent is a powerful season; it is a turning point that can foster change and conversion in each of us." I want to encourage everyone to use this special time to prepare to meet the Risen Lord at Easter! We do this best by celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please review the schedule and make time for this healing Sacrament before Easter. I have tried to make it as convenient as possible with two priests available for Confession every weekend time and adding Tuesday evening opportunities. Also, we will have several priests available for the Evening of Reflection on Tuesday, March 20.

Annual Catholic Appeal Follow-Up: Dare to Hope!

If you have not yet had a chance to give to this year's Annual Catholic Appeal by mail or by the in pew pledging we did last Sunday, please consider participating this year by picking up a pledge envelope this weekend or next and return it to the box marked ACA in the Gathering Area. Last year about 1,000 STA households did not participate in this appeal; this seems like a lot of households who are not participating. Besides financially supporting our STA Parish, we are also responsible for supporting our Diocese and the world wide Catholic Church. Making a gift to the ACA is the best way to support ministries beyond our parish borders. We all need to work together and contribute our fair share. Please consider joining the 400 plus STA households who have made a gift to the 2018 ACA and help us to achieve our goal of having more households participating in this year's appeal. Whatever you give is gratefully received. Thanks for your continued generosity!

V Encuentro (V Encounter)

This Sunday we are having our Diocesan Encuentro event; with representatives from 12 parishes in our Diocese that have Mass in Spanish, including our STA Parish representatives. Thank you for your continued prayers as we work together in the Diocese and enter into dialogue to find ways of enhancing ministry to Hispanic Catholics and sharing with them ways they can support our Diocese with their gifts. We are looking forward to celebrating Mass at 5 PM at St. Maria Goretti with our Bishop of Madison, Robert Morlino, and Bishop Rojas of Chicago.

Reflection from Our Parish Seminarian, Lawrence Oparaji

Today is traditionally known as Laetare Sunday, Rejoice Sunday. It is called this because it calls on us to rejoice in the hope of our salvation through the grace of God in Christ Jesus. It is also a way of notifying us that Easter is near, our 40-day journey is almost coming to an end, so remain steadfast and rooted in God for our opponent, the devil, is constantly lurking around looking for an opportunity to devour us.

In today's Gospel we encounter the popular verse "For God so loved the world that He gave his only son, that anyone who believes in Him might be saved." This is good news and a great source of rejoicing for all of us. However, it is important to note also that this is an offer. So, we can either accept, or reject it because, it is not imposed on anyone. This is completely indicated in the terms of this offer: "...So that everyone who believes in Him may not be lost but may be saved." That is it—everyone who believes! Believing in God and adhering to His precepts and teachings can be very difficult; in fact, they are impossible without the grace of God himself. I have a carving on my table that reads "If He brings you to it, He will bring you through it." This for me is the summary of God's grace, it is the power of God in us that elevates us from our "Adamic" (from Adam) tendency to fall, to sin, to disobey God. This grace is abundant and unending but we need to be connected to the source, God, through our participation in the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, which is Christ body and blood, and the sacrament of reconciliation, which gives us grace to stand up when we fall. There is no problem falling, in fact God knows we fall all the time; the problem arises when we fall and refuse to get up, so this sacrament of reconciliation strengthens our resolve to pick up ourselves and continue our race even when we fall.

May God give us the grace to run our race well and to constantly rejoice in the knowledge that He loves us and will help us, if only we choose to freely come to him in prayer and through the sacraments.

Music & Liturgy By Greg Buchberger, Director of Music Ministries

We are now more than halfway through our Lenten Journey! It is a good time to consider how we are doing in our preparations for Holy Week and Easter. During these remaining days of the Lenten Season, I encourage each of you to make a renewed commitment to truly praying the Mass. We can easily just go through the motions and not think about what we are doing when we come to pray. Most especially, I would encourage each of you to really consider and pray the texts that we sing. Whether or not you consider yourself a singer, as an active participant at Mass, it's important to pray the texts that we sing! These songs are all about the text. This is a very real part of our prayer.

I had the wonderful opportunity to spend time with our middle and high school students this past weekend. Thanks, Dominick Meyer, for the invite! We talked together about how we prepare to come to Mass, to spend time in God's presence, to pray as a community, and how to change from just singing notes and words to actually entering into prayer! We examined a few of the Lenten songs that we sing and talked about what the texts say, so we can understand the words that we sing, and enter into prayer more fully. We considered that we must be authentic in our prayer, which means understanding what we say and sing, and believing it in our hearts. I was very impressed with our students and their willingness to raise their voices in song!

Here are some tips that were shared:

- ◆ Before arriving at church, read and pray through the readings for that day, so they will be fresh in your mind. In the proclamation of the scripture, we hear God speaking to us. With preparation ahead of time, we are able to listen with attentive ears to God's voice.
- ◆ Once you have arrived at church and are seated, take a few minutes to read through the texts of the songs that we will be singing that day. These songs are not just randomly chosen, but rather to reflect and reinforce the themes and readings we are celebrating that day. These poems and texts are part of our theological foundation and formation. Often, our music choices will enhance but not necessarily repeat the other readings and texts proclaimed during the Mass.
- ◆ Check out those Entrance and Communion Antiphons! Our cantors proclaim them before we sing the congregational songs given for those times during the Mass. These antiphons are the official texts for those moments during the Mass. They are often taken from Scripture and help us to reflect on the great mystery we celebrate together.
- ◆ Sing and respond! As Catholics, we are still relatively new to singing together as a gathered assembly. Other Christians have hundreds of years of hymn singing and congregational song in their traditions. It wasn't until the 2nd Vatican Council (1962-1965) when Catholics were encouraged to add their voices and join together in prayer with all of those gathered. Don't forget the adage that "Singing is praying twice!" We are ALL called to participate actively in our prayer, through our posture, spoken prayers, sung prayers, and congregational song.

Inviting Jesus into Our Lives

Lenten Evening of Reflection

March 20, 6:30-7:15pm

Gathering Area

Have we invited Jesus into every aspect of our lives?

What does it look like to invite Him into our real lives - into our work, our homes, our friendships, our free time?

What walls have we built that block the grace and forgiveness that Jesus longs to share with us?

Join us for prayer that will inspire you to deeper spiritual reflection and, should you choose to celebrate the sacrament that night, provide a thought-provoking context for celebrating Reconciliation.

You are encouraged to extend an invitation to all those who desire a life more in-tune with God's grace.

*Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking;
if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me. Rev. 3:20*

The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available from 6-7:30pm.
