Third Sunday of Easter | Tercer Domingo de Pascua
April 15, 2018 | 15 de Abril de 2018

From the Desk of Fr. Bart

Third Sunday of Easter

Our celebration of the 50 Days of Easter continues in a joyous way this week. The Joy of the Easter Gospel is something that we cannot contain or just keep to ourselves; we want to share it with others. A new way we are doing this in our parish is through social media. Thank you to everyone for your support of this evangelization effort. We had many parishioners who took the time to be interviewed for our video that we showed at Mass this weekend. We had many parishioners who previewed the video and made helpful suggestions on how to improve it. Our STA Staff and I have been working on this project for the last nine months and it is exciting to see the fruits of our labor and share these videos with the whole parish. I hope you enjoyed the video shown during Mass this weekend and that you are gaining a clear understanding of our STA Parish Vision and Mission. The reason for the video is for the purpose of communicating our vision of being a parish of missionary disciples of Jesus and our mission to encounter Jesus Christ in a way that changes how we live. Please help us to evangelize by following us on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram, and subscribing to our YouTube Channel. You can access all of these through our parish website at stamadison.org. Once you begin to follow us, you can share our videos and messages with your family, friends, and neighbors. This is a great way to evangelize and share our Easter Joy with those we love!

First Holy Communion Masses April 28 and 29

We have 52 young people, mostly second graders, preparing to celebrate First Holy Communion at St. Thomas Aquinas! Due to the large number of First Communicants, we will be celebrating two First Communion Masses. One will be at our 4:30 PM Mass on Saturday, April 28 and one will be at our 10:00 AM Mass on Sunday, April 29. The First Communicants will sit in reserved pews in the front of the Church and their families and guests will sit in reserved pews on the main floor. Please schedule your Mass attendance accordingly as we look ahead to celebrate this important day in the life of our youth and our parish family. Please keep all of these young people in your prayers.

Sacrament of Confirmation May 5

We have 37 high school students, mostly ninth graders, preparing to celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation with Bishop Robert Morlino at a special 7:00 PM Mass here at STA. We are hosting our neighboring parishes this year: St. Francis Xavier, Cross Plains; St. Christopher, Verona; and St. Michael, Mt. Horeb. Nearly 100 total candidates will be Confirmed. Please keep all of these young people in your prayers.

Please sign-up to have your family picture taken for our Photo Directory, we are hoping for a very high participation rate so that our directory is useful and a good record of everyone who is a part of our parish. Reflection from Seminarian, Lawrence Oparaji

In our Gospel today, Jesus strengthens the faith of His disciples and apostles by helping them to understand the scriptures. A common mistake we often make is the supposition that it was Thomas alone that doubted Christ's resurrection. However, Jesus, being God, did not make this mistake because He understood very well that most of his disciples doubted. Thomas doubted and openly expressed it, while others pretended to believe. Jesus knew this, and this was why He had to eat, drink and even allowed them to touch Him, to prove to them that He was real and that He is truly resurrected.

One major problem that Jesus identified in His disciples was ignorance. Even though they were with Him, heard Him preach, and saw Him do miracles, they remained ignorant of who He really was and especially, what the scriptures said about Him. Ignorance was actually a major reason why they lacked faith in Him. Are we different today? How well do we know the Lord? The easiest way to know the Lord is through encountering Him in the scriptures, His own inspired word, penned down for us that we might come to know Him and believe in Him. This is why St. Jerome reminds us that: "Ignorance of the scriptures is ignorance of Christ." Ignorance of Christ, His power, His promises, and of course His words, are a major stumbling block to faith. It is only when we are delivered from ignorance that our faith can become strong enough to witness to the resurrected Christ. This was why Paul constantly prayed: "May the Lord open the eyes of your minds." We are in constant need of help in order to be freed from ignorance and, for our faith to grow. We can do this by daily inviting Jesus and the Holy Spirit to help us.

Today we are encouraged to delve full speed ahead in every way possible to come to know the Lord more; how we do this can range from reading the scriptures, attending talks, listening to good podcasts or shows (Relevant Radio) and asking Fr. Bart those "hard questions." He is always there for all of us. May God open our minds and hearts to come to know Him better.

Reflection from Seminarian, Michael Wanta

Alleluia! A word that we don't often think about. As a seminarian, I say it often since it is part of the opening prayer for the Liturgy of the Hours: the prayer of the Church at different times or 'hours' of the day, such as morning prayer, midday, evening, and night prayer.

During Lent, we refrained from using this word of praise and rejoicing, but with the coming of Easter, it is everywhere, especially in the Liturgy of the Hours and the Mass! I spent the Easter Octave in a Benedictine Monastery and was able to take part in their countless hours spent in prayer each day. I was surrounded by the word and it took on a new meaning. The Church now uses "Alleluia" exuberantly, tacking it onto all sorts of prayers. Why?

In Her wisdom, Holy Mother Church calls us to remember the joy of Easter day. Even the Gospel of the Road to Emmaus takes place on Easter Sunday even though we are now reading it two weeks later. The mystery is too great for one day. It is not possible to properly penetrate the mystery or to celebrate the joy of the Resurrection in one day. Thus the Church has given us not only an Octave to contemplate it, but a whole season. 50 days versus the 40 days of Lent which prepare for it.

At last we can begin to grasp the necessity of Christ's sufferings because in His Resurrection we find hope, because death no longer has the last word. Suffering is deprived of its sting because, united to the cross, it is made a weapon against death and evil. Suffering is transformed into a way of union with the Father, through the obedience of the Son. Founded in this faith of "Christ in us, the hope of glory" we praise God for the gift of salvation: Alleluia!

So let us remember what we celebrate, Christ the cause of our joy when we sing aloud: Alleluia! Let us continue to ponder the mystery so that we too may say: "were not our hearts burning within us?" and with our song of praise let us ask the lord: "Stay with us," alleluia!

Earth Day, April 22

In last week's bulletin Fr. Bart talked about the Easter Vigil as "the Christian feast... of new birth, new beginnings, salvation renewed, and humanity restored to the Lord... It is the beginning of a new season of grace and a time of joy and thanksgiving." Mindful of these words and in anticipation of our long-awaited spring, the Justice and Peace Committee's Care of Creation Team invites all to rejoice in the beauty of God's creation and the miracle of new life bursting forth all around us in the weeks ahead.

As we approach Earth Day next Sunday, April 22, the Care of Creation Team offers a prayer and a resource to support renewed commitment to caring for God's creation. We encourage adding Pope Francis' "Prayer for Our Earth" to your daily prayers this week.

We also encourage further reflection. A good resource, "Reconciling God, Creation and Humanity," can be found on the Jesuits' Ignation Solidarity Network at ecologicalexamen.org/. The "Ecological Examen" "asks you to reflect on your personal relationship with creation... [and] is a tool for prayer, reflection and action... to deepen our call to care for creation and the most vulnerable."

A Prayer for Our Earth

All powerful God,

you are present in the whole universe
and in the smallest of your creatures.

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love,
that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor,
help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth so precious in your eyes.

Bring healing to our lives,
that we may protect the world and not prey on it,
that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain
at the expense of the poor and the earth.

Teach us to discover the worth of each thing,
to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature
as we journey towards your infinite light.

We thank you for being with us each day.

Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

(Laudato Si', n. 246)

April is Immigration Awareness Month

“Migration today is not a phenomenon limited to some areas of the planet. It affects all continents and is growing into a tragic situation of global proportions. Not only does this concern those looking for dignified work or better living conditions, but also men and women, the elderly and children, who are forced to leave their homes in the hope of finding safety, peace and security. Children are the first among those to pay the heavy toll of emigration, almost always caused by violence, poverty, environmental conditions, as well as the negative aspects of globalization. The unrestrained competition for quick and easy profit brings with it the cultivation of perverse scourges such as child trafficking, the exploitation and abuse of minors and, generally, the depriving of rights intrinsic to childhood as sanctioned by the International Convention on the Rights of the Child.” Message of His Holiness Pope Francis for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2017 [15 January 2017]

Consider Deepening Your Relationship with the Holy Spirit

The ‘Wild Goose’ program is being offered on Friday mornings (after morning Mass) from 9:15 to 10:45 AM. The “Wild Goose” was a term that the ancient Celts had for the Holy Spirit. The series will help you experience a deeper relationship with the Person of the Holy Spirit, and as you come to experience God’s presence and power, this very same Spirit will transform you and bring you freedom. The Wild Goose sessions are ‘stand alone’ and will cover many topics related to the Holy Spirit and our Catholic faith, so consider stopping by! Contact Jennifer Ludtke for more information at jennifer@stamadison.org or 833-2606.
