*Father, all the elements of nature
 obey your command.
 Calm the storms and hurricanes
 that threaten us and turn our fear of your power
 into praise of your goodness.
 Grant this through
 our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son,
 who lives and
 reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
 one God, forever and ever. Amen.*

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 9, 2018

Vigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
9 de Septiembre de 2018

From the Desk of Fr. Bart

Twenty-third Sunday of Ordinary Time

The Aramaic phrase “Ephphatha” spoken by Jesus as He cures the deaf man literally means, “be opened!”: Jesus “opens” not only the man’s ears but also his entire person to life in the community. Ephphatha is the prayer of every disciple: that we may be “opened” from our fears, our arrogance, our self-centeredness that make us “deaf” to God speaking in our midst and “mute” in responding to the cries of our brothers and sisters in our midst.

Religious Education Program Begins New Year of Formation

This coming Wednesday evening, September 12, we will have a Parent Meeting for all the families who will have a student celebrating the Sacrament of First Reconciliation and First Communion this year. Then on the following Wednesday evening, September 19, we will have our First Class of Religious Education for grades 1-5 for this year. Sunday, October 7, is the First Class of Religious Education for our students in grades 6-9. We are very excited to get our program underway! Please keep our youth in your prayers, especially our students who are celebrating the Sacraments of First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation this year.

I wish to thank all of our parents for their effort and sacrifice that they have put into raising their children in the Catholic faith. At their child’s Baptism, they made the promise to be the first teachers of your child in the ways of faith. It is the Church’s role to help with this as much as possible. I am thankful for all our parents do, I am thankful to our Directors and Catechists, and I am thankful for the Church that we can work together to pass along the richness and beauty of our Catholic faith to the next generation.

Alpha

We have had almost 400 parishioners, including myself, experience Alpha and this is bearing great fruit in the lives of our members! I am grateful to the Holy Spirit who is working so powerfully in our lives and touching so many hearts, bringing us closer to Jesus. The testimonials of the way people have experienced Jesus and how faith has been awakened is truly inspiring.

In order to share our joy of faith in Jesus with others, we first need to have received this joy in our lives. Alpha is the “on-ramp” to a life of missionary discipleship and sharing the joy of salvation with those we love who have left the Church or who have stopped believing. The joy of the Gospel is meant for every single person! I invite you to come and experience this intimate encounter with Jesus through Alpha. Please sign up in the Gathering Area after Mass. The first Alpha Session is Wednesday, September 26 at 5:30 PM. Bring a friend! See Page 4 for more details.

Friday, September 14, is the Feast of the Holy Cross and a Mass of Reparation for the sins of sexual depravity committed by members of the clergy and episcopacy.

In a letter written on August 18 and published in the Catholic Herald on August 22, Bishop Morlino stated:

“I ask you all to join me and the entire clergy of the Diocese of Madison in making public and private acts of reparation to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and to the Immaculate Heart of Mary for all the sins of sexual depravity committed by members of the clergy and episcopacy. I will be offering a public Mass of reparation on Friday, September 14, the Feast of the Triumph of the Holy Cross, at Holy Name Heights and I ask all pastors to do the same in their own

Prayer for Life

For all who hold public office:
May profound reverence
for the dignity of every person
be deeply rooted in their hearts;
We pray to the Lord:

Por todos los que tienen un cargo público:
para que el respeto profundo
por la dignidad de cada persona
nazca profundamente en su corazón;
roguemos al Señor:

Prayer for Justice

Lord of Wisdom, awaken us to our duty to care for the basic needs of all people. Strengthen with hope people denied their human rights and freedoms. Provide us all with the voice to cry out for justice for the poor and the oppressed. Amen

Señor de la Sabiduría, levántanos a nuestra responsabilidad de cuidar de las necesidades básicas de todas las personas Fortalece con esperanza a las personas que niegan sus derechos humanos. Provéenos a todos la voz para gritar por la justicia del pobre y el oprimido. Amén.

Flood Relief Donations

Through joint contributions from the Diocese of Madison, Catholic Charities of Madison, and Catholic Charities USA, $30,000 is being provided for flood disaster relief to needy residents in the most significantly devastated areas of our Diocese: Belleville/Albany, Cross Plains, Black Earth, and Mazomanie.

All parishes of the Diocese are encouraged to take a parish special collection. Last weekend, we took up a Special Collection for local flooding victims. The funds will be disbursed to the hardest hit areas specifically for flooding-related relief for residents in the local area with distribution by their local Catholic parishes.

If you were not here last weekend and want to help, please put your donation in an envelope marked “Flood Relief” and put it in the collection basket the next time you are here for Mass.

Social Justice Funding Requests Being Accepted

Our STA parish budget includes funds for outreach to assist charities involved with social justice. Parish members who are advocates for an organization may request funding. The Outreach Funding Review Board is currently accepting requests for this year’s review. If you would like to have your organization included please contact Kathy Taddy at 608-831-1120 or pktaddy@tds.net. She can give you more information about the review process and provide the request forms.

Reflection from Deacon Lawrence Oparaji

Today's readings call us to reflect on favoritism and how we treat others who might not be in the same class or category as we are. Today we celebrate Christ our Savior who shows no favoritism and makes no distinction between classes of people but makes all rich in faith. Our First Reading is a message of hope for the oppressed people of God and for everyone in need of God's saving help. Above all, it is a message of hope from a loving Father who does not show favoritism nor does He like oppression.

In our Second Reading today, James also focuses on the sin of favoritism. To favor some people and disregard others based on outward factors is a terrible sin that afflicted the early church. This was why seven deacons were elected to avoid favoritism in the distribution of resources in Acts 6. The message of James is still very relevant to all of us today. All over the world, people still suffer terribly because of their country of origin, appearance, skin color, or economic, social, political, religious or cultural status. It is sad that favoritism, discrimination, tribalism, and racism still plague our society in this century. This should not be so for us Christians!

Here on earth we are called to build a kingdom of justice, love, peace, and joy, and to do this we have to shun every inclination to show favoritism; otherwise we will not propagate true justice, love, joy and peace. We are called to be like Christ, He didn't cast out the deaf, the lepers, the blind as many leaders of His time would have done. Rather, He elicited faith from them and He cured them; He not only gave them healing, He also gave them the gift of faith. We are called to go and do likewise without being partial, to help others around us in their material needs, but most importantly to help them encounter Jesus.

parishes. In addition, I ask that all priests, clergy, religious, and diocesan employees join me in observing the upcoming Autumn Ember Days (Sep. 19, 21, and 22) as days of fasting and abstinence in reparation for the sins and outrages committed by members of the clergy and episcopacy and I invite all the faithful to do the same. Some sins, like some demons, can only be driven out by prayer and fasting."

We will be following this directive from the Bishop here at STA at our regularly scheduled 8:30 AM daily Mass. For details about attending the Mass at Holy Name Heights with Bishop Morlino, please watch for details in the Catholic Herald and on the Diocesan website at madisondiocese.org.

I hope to have some more information regarding the above mentioned Autumn Ember Days in next Sunday's bulletin.

Discipleship with Holly Irving

Midweek Recharge!

Take time today and reread James 2:1-5 today. Let this Scripture remind you that God wants us to treat everyone as if they were Jesus. Step out of your comfort zone to reach out to someone who needs to hear the Good News of Jesus. You will find God working through you!

Discipleship!

Being a disciple is following Jesus, which means serving others as Jesus did. It can be proclaiming your love of Jesus or proclaiming the Gospel. When you serve others, you are treating others as if Jesus was there in disguise. Serving others will be transformative. I remember once when I was asked to help someone who really annoyed me. I found that in serving this person, I was given a gift from God that I did not expect. In September, we will be asking everyone to fill out a Time, Talent, and Treasure form.. There are booklets with descriptions on the many opportunities that exist to allow you to share your gifts and talents at our parish home!

Children's Envelopes

Children's Envelopes to put their offerings into the basket in front of church are given out during Religious Education. If your child did not get envelopes, they can be found in the Gathering Area in a basket.

Giving is Good for the Soul!

We are called to be generous with all of our gifts, time, talent, and treasure! Proverbs 3:9 says: "Honor the Lord with your wealth, with first fruits." In the Old Testament, people gave the best of their crops as a way of thanking God for all He has done for them. What about you?

Food Sunday Next Weekend

Next weekend is our monthly Food Sunday. Your generosity last month was much appreciated as the need was great and inventories were low. Your donations this month will make a big difference to our neighbors struggling to make ends meet after recent flooding and as children return to school. See the list of most needed items below. Nutritious donations are doubly appreciated.

Cereal	Tuna	Canned fruit
Hearty soups	Pasta	Meals-in-a-can
Olive oil	Toothpaste	Peanut butter
Pancake mix/syrup

The Human Concerns Commission wishes to express its sincere THANKS for your generosity.

You Are Invited to Alpha!

Alpha begins in late September – with three times to choose from!

We're offering three sessions starting in late September: Sunday after 10 AM Mass (starting September 23), Wednesday morning after 8:30 Mass (8:30-10:15 AM) and evening from 5:30-7:15 PM (starting September 26).

Please send questions or RSVP to Jenny at 833-2606 or Jennifer@stamadison.org.

What is Alpha?

Alpha is a series of 10 sessions, along with an opportunity for a weekend away. It provides a comfortable, hospitable environment to refresh your understanding of the basics of the Christian faith and the big questions of life.

Who Should Come to Alpha?

Anyone who wants to get to know Jesus and their faith better, or who has questions about their faith. Do you feel like you need a boost to enlighten your spiritual life? Do you have a family member or friend who has stepped away? Alpha can help you explain things to them, or give them a place to ask their own questions, while giving you an experience of community that will warm your heart and soul. Even if you have been Catholic your whole life, it will deepen your appreciation for the way God loves us. Come, and bring a friend!

What Does Alpha Look Like?

 GOOD FOOD Guests break into small groups where everyone is welcome to share thoughts and ask questions in a nonjudgmental and relaxed setting.	 ALPHA TALK Following refreshments, there is a video of a short talk exploring various aspects of the Christian faith.	 DISCUSSION Guests break into small groups where everyone is welcome to share thoughts and ask questions in a nonjudgmental and relaxed setting.

Bishop Barron: "The Mass"

On Tuesday mornings, beginning September 18, from 9:30-11:00 AM in the upper conference room, you are invited to seven 90-minute sessions (one Orientation and six video talks and discussions) to walk through the order of the Mass and receive inspiration and insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord, Jesus Christ. See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it revolves around a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist. There is no cost for this study. RSVP to Jenny Ludtke, Director of Evangelization, at 833-2606 or Jennifer@stamadison.org for more information or to register.

RCIA – Should I become Catholic?

Each year, people ask about joining the Catholic Church and/or being baptized. Others who are Catholic but not Confirmed decide that now is the time. If you are considering becoming Catholic or want to complete your sacraments of initiation, you are invited to participate in our parish RCIA program. It gives you an opportunity to learn about our Catholic religion, grow closer to God through prayer, and ultimately receive the sacraments and become a member of the Catholic Church. We usually meet on Sunday morning after 10 AM Mass, 11:15 -12:30, beginning in the fall and lasting until just after Easter. To ask questions and see if the RCIA process is something you would like to be a part of, please contact Jennifer Ludtke, Director of Evangelization and Outreach, at 833-2606 or Jennifer@stamadison.org.

Adult Confirmation

Are you Catholic already but never received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Listen to the Spirit calling! Now is the time to complete the sacraments of initiation. There is a preparation process for adults who have been practicing their Catholic faith, and are looking to receive Confirmation. The first step is to contact Jennifer Ludtke at jennifer@stamadison.org or call 833-2606 to set up an appointment to learn more.

Young Adults: Prayers & Pancakes

All in their 20s and 30s are welcome to join us on Sept. 11 for a pancake dinner and a prayer buffet.

This is a great chance to socialize with other young adults in the parish, pray together and grow in our prayer lives, and learn about upcoming events. The pancake dinner and prayer buffet will take place from 6:30 PM-8:30 PM in the Social Hall. More details are on the STA Young Adult Facebook page.

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible: An Engaging Journey Through the Bible

This eight-part study (30-minute sessions) provides the easiest way to understand the Bible. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible makes the complex simple. It helps you uncover the story woven throughout Scripture so that you can get the "big picture" of the Bible and understand what it is all about. The Bible is a story about the Father's unfailing love for you—a love that you are now called to share with others.

You will:

- Make sense of the Bible and see how it relates to your everyday life
- Discover the remarkable connections between the Old and New Testaments
- See how the sacraments, the Church and our entire Catholic Faith is rooted in Scripture ... and much more!

This is a great follow-up to Alpha! The cost is $20 and it runs on Tuesdays, 6:30-8:00 PM, starting September 18. Contact Jenny Ludtke at 833-2606 or Jennifer@stamadison.org for more information or to register.

Justice and Peace Committee Meetings

Thursday, September 13, 6:15 PM

Discussion will center on our focused themes for the year which are designed to educate and inspire action on our rich tradition of Catholic Social Teaching. There will be updates on existing initiatives and discussion on topics we plan to focus on this year. All are welcome to join us.

Discussion of Rejoice and Be Glad, Gaudete et Exsultate, Thursday, September 13, 7:00-8:00pm

In his recent Apostolic Exhortation, Rejoice and Be Glad, Pope Francis reminds us that “We are called to be holy by living our lives with love and by bearing witness in everything we do, wherever we find ourselves.” (p. 14). How do we answer this call?

Join the Justice and Peace Committee as we share conversation on this document and discover ways we can nurture our calling to holiness. The conversation will be richer if you take the time to read the document in preparation, but you are welcome to join us whether you have read it or not.

- Rejoice and Be Glad (42 pages) can be downloaded at: w2.vatican.va/content/vatican/en.html. Click on Apostolic Exhortations, and Gaudete et Exsultate will be the first document on the list.
- It is available in book form (71 pages) from Amazon.com.

We will meet on Thursday, September 13 in the Lower Conference Room from 7:00-8:00 PM following the Justice and Peace business meeting.

Prayer for Care of Creation

God of all creation,

we thank you for the abundant gifts
you have given us—
the gift of your unconditional love,
the gift of each other and
the gift of all created things.

We praise you for your generosity
and your loving care for us.

We hear your call to us
to live in right relationship with each other and with creation.

Help us to always be mindful of how our actions affect your gifts—
for good or for bad.

We ask this in the name of your Son,
our Redeemer,
and in your Spirit. Amen.
