LOVE GOD. LOVE OTHERS. MAKE DISCIPLES!

Y al ver la estrella, se regocijaron con muy grande gozo.
Mt. 2:10

Que en esta Navidad Dios abra tu corazón a su amor, tu mente a sus maravillas, tus oídos a su voz, y tu vida a su alegría.

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

Merry Christmas ¡Feliz Navidad!

Welcome From Our Pastor:

To our dear friends, visitors and guests at Christmas: Wherever you are at in your faith journey and relationship with Jesus Christ, I warmly welcome you to our Christmas Masses! My name is Fr. Bart Timmerman and I am so blessed to say that this is my sixth Christmas as pastor here at St. Thomas Aquinas. I thank God for your presence and am filled with joy to see so many partaking in Holy Communion this Christmas. It is awe-inspiring for me to look out at you, my dear family in faith, while I am celebrating Mass, and see you so numerous, so unified, so strong, and so faithful.

Lots of folks come home for Christmas, “home” meaning to church as well as to their families. The warmth of family, the wonder of snow, the softness of colored lights, the Christmas feast, the excitement of gift-giving and the nativity scene are effective ‘preachers’ of what the birth of Jesus means. So “Welcome Home” everyone! My prayer is that by coming home to St. Thomas Aquinas you will have an opportunity to experience hope, to witness and share in our desire to know more about our precious Savior, Jesus, and ultimately to find here a place to encounter Jesus Christ in a way that changes how you live.

On this joyful day, I wish to extend to you and your family a very blessed and Merry Christmas. May our Holy Communion grow stronger as we live out this great mystery of our dear Savior’s birth each day of our lives.

If you are intrigued by your visit, I invite you to learn more about who we are at St. Thomas Aquinas. Please read more about us to find out and follow us on YouTube and Facebook.

If you would like to schedule a time to meet and talk about your journey of faith I invite you to email me at parish@stamadison.org.

Glory to God in the Highest!

Fr. Bart

St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church: a parish where people experience Jesus in a way that changes how they live.

It has been two years since we at STA opened ourselves more intentionally to the prompting of the Holy Spirit, and began focusing on becoming an evangelizing parish of missionary disciples.

In 2016 the staff and I began by considering our own personal relationship with Jesus. To evangelize others, to share our joy of knowing Jesus, we must first be evangelized ourselves.

As a way of helping our parishioners deepen their relationship with Jesus, we offered the “Heart of our Faith” retreat and started using Alpha. As we go into the future, I hope that more and more people will experience Alpha, as it is the first step in deepening our relationship with Jesus Christ. Almost 400 people have already been part of Alpha!

Last year we offered our first Relit seminar (repeating it just a few months ago), a training event to help people learn concrete ways to share the joy of knowing Jesus. The parish also made the voyage to the “Digital Continent” where we put our inviting message out into social media.

This year, as we continue moving forward, we are deepening our focus, from loving God to loving others.

- We strive to reclaim Sunday as the center of our life as a community of disciples.
- We are developing a plan for greater hospitality at our weekend Masses.
- Our Pastoral Council is enhancing the way we welcome newly registered parish members.
- Starting in late January, we will be introducing small faith groups as a way to encourage and support each other in living our discipleship.
- As the highlight of this year, on the first weekend after Easter (Divine Mercy weekend), we will welcome internationally known, Spirit-filled presenter, Deacon Keith Strohm to lead us in a parish mission.

The Second Vatican Council, Popes Paul VI, St. John Paul II, Benedict XVI, and now Francis, have been boldly challenging us to actively promote the Good News of the Gospel. I ask you to remember the entire STA parish family and staff in your prayers. I ask you to be deeply faithful to Christ and the Church and to become involved wherever and whenever you can. Become a member. Sign up for a small group in January. Participate in Alpha. Attend Relit. Experience Jesus in new and surprising ways. Reach out to others to share what you have experienced.

May the Holy Spirit bless all of these efforts and work through us and way beyond us to accomplish God’s will in these matters at this time in history and in this place.

An Epiphany Celebration of Lessons and Carols - Sing!

Sunday, January 6 at 1 PM

As we celebrate the Feast of Epiphany, bringing the Christmas season to a close, our musicians will share the music and songs of Christ's coming, and we'll sing together the carols of Christmas. We'll hear once more the amazing stories of Christmas and Epiphany, and pray for the coming of Christ into the hearts of all. A simple reception will follow.

Three Wise Men Visit Spanish Mass

Sunday, January 6 at 6:30 PM

At our weekly Spanish Mass, there will be a special visit by the three Wise Men. We will celebrate their visit with King's cake for all as well as candy for the children from the Magi.

Fleece Tie Blankets - Serve!

Thursday, January 10, 6:30-8:30 PM

This activity, sponsored by our parish St. Vincent de Paul Conference, is a wonderful opportunity for all ages to share the warmth of God's love by creating a cozy blanket for "Recycle the Warmth." St. Vincent de Paul provides good-quality recycled and new bedding to hundreds of needy people in Madison and its surrounding communities every year. Willing to bring fleece or want to participate? Contact Kathy at meehanmnk@gmail.com or Jenny at jennifer@stamadison.org

Spaghetti Dinner - Celebrate!

February 2, Mass at 4:30, dinner to follow

Join us for a glass of wine and a delicious spaghetti dinner as we honor our patron saint, St. Thomas Aquinas (feast day: January 28). This is a wonderful opportunity to spend time with our parish family, and to salute this Italian Dominican friar, Catholic priest, and Doctor of the Church!

You're Invited! Small Groups Begin at the End of January

St. Thomas Aquinas parish will soon begin a new opportunity for the renewal of our faith and our parish. The program, called The Journey, allows us to grow a deeper sense of personal encounter with Jesus Christ.

Through scripture, various forms of prayer, video and discussions, we engage with those who met Jesus two thousand years ago and relate these experiences to life today.

The eight small group sessions last 90 minutes. The first get-together is simply a chance to meet your group, receive materials and share some great food. Following the first night, there will be six sessions, and each group will also explore doing a service activity together. Finally, on April 7, everyone will come together for a potluck and Mass. Some of the Journey groups will meet in homes, others at the parish. There will be groups for those with particular interests, e.g., parents, young adults, or seniors, as well as mixed groups that include people from a variety of walks of life.

You are invited and encouraged to sign-up to be part of a group. Consider inviting a friend to join you! You can register by emailing Jenny at Jennifer@stamadison.org.

Not a member but want updates?

If you are a member of another parish and still want updates from St. Thomas Aquinas please send an email to Clarice at Clarice@stamadison.org asking to be added to the email list. Emails are sent out one or two times a month with the latest information on what is happening at the Parish.

RCIA – Should I become Catholic?

If you are considering becoming Catholic or are already Catholic but haven't been confirmed, you are invited to participate in our parish RCIA program. For more information please contact Jennifer Ludtke, Director of Evangelization and Outreach, 833-2606 or Jennifer@stamadison.org.

A nuestros queridos amigos, visitantes, e invitados en Navidad:

No importa donde se encuentren en su jornada de fe y en su relación con Jesucristo, ¡quiero calurosamente recibirlos a nuestras Misas de Navidad! Mi nombre es Padre Bart Timmerman y tengo la bendición de ser el párroco de Santo Tomás de Aquino por mi sexto año. Le doy gracias a Dios por su presencia y me llena de alegría el ver a muchos participando de la Santa Comunión esta Navidad. Me inspira verlos, mi querida familia en la fe, mientras celebro la Misa, y ver a tantos, tan unidos, tan fuertes, y tan fieles. Muchas personas regresan a casa para Navidad, regresan a su hogar en la Iglesia y en sus familias. El calor familiar, la maravilla de la nieve, las luces festivas, la fiesta Navideña, la emoción de dar regalos, y la escena de la natividad son predicadores efectivos de lo que significa el nacimiento de Jesús. ¡Así que “Bienvenidos a su Hogar” a todos! Mi oración es que al venir a su casa en Santo Tomás de Aquino tendrán la oportunidad de presenciar esperanza, testimoniar y compartir su deseo de conocer un poco más de nuestro preciado Salvador, Jesús, y últimamente encontrar aquí un lugar donde presencien a Jesucristo de una manera que cambie como viven.

En este día lleno de alegría, quiero extenderle a usted y a su familia una bendecida y feliz Navidad. Que nuestra Santa Comunión crezca más fuerte mientras vivimos el gran misterio del nacimiento de nuestro querido Salvador.

Si usted está intrigado por su visita, le invito a que aprenda más sobre quienes somos en Santo Tomás de Aquino. Por favor lea más sobre nosotros y síganos en YouTube y Facebook. También los invito a que me envíen un correo electrónico (parish@stamadison.org) por si quiere sacar un tiempo para reunirse conmigo y hablar sobre su jornada de fe.

¡Gloria a Dios en las Alturas!

Padre Bart

Mensaje Navideño

Por Lorianne Aubut

Coordinadora parroquial del Ministerio Hispano

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, Primero quiero tomar esta oportunidad para desearles una Feliz Navidad a cada uno de ustedes y a todos sus familiares. Es mi más grande deseo que esta época navideña sea una de paz, amor, y alegría para todos ustedes. Nuestro querido Jesús, recién nacido en Belén, nos recuerda que nada es imposible para el Señor. Y es por eso que quiero compartir con ustedes las maravillas que Dios ha hecho con nuestra comunidad hispana aquí en Santo Tomás de Aquino. En este pasado año, muchas cosas ocurrieron: completamos el proceso del V Encuentro, hemos continuado con nuestras celebraciones y eventos de las Posadas, de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, los Tres Reyes Magos; también seguimos con los rosarios en español y los estudios bíblicos en español; también tuvimos la presencia del apologetico y predicador Martin Zavala, establecimos el programa ALPHA en español, fuimos anfitriones de dos retiros pre-matrimoniales diocesanos en español, y fuimos parte del inicio de un grupo líder hispano diocesano, más abrimos las puertas para ofrecer clases teológicas en español con nuestra diócesis.

Realmente ha sido un año lleno de bendiciones para nuestra comunidad hispana parroquial. La comunidad hispana en Santo Tomás de Aquino ha florecido y se ha fortalecido con el gran talento y disposición de todos ustedes. Quiero personalmente darle las gracias por ser parte de mi vida y de este hermoso ministerio que Dios no has encomendado. Gracias por ser un instrumento de paz y amor, por ser realmente discípulos misioneros de Cristo. Que Dios y la Santísima Virgen María los colme a cada uno de ustedes con muchas bendiciones y gracias en este nuevo año 2019. No me puedo imaginar las maravillas que vendrán en este nuevo año.

Muchas bendiciones navideñas,
Lorianne

The center of our faith is the person of Jesus Christ. He is Emmanuel—God with us. This beautiful painting by Bradley Parrish was commissioned and gifted to our parish. It hangs in our prayer chapel. Spending time in quiet meditation here at the parish is one way to deepen and grow your faith. We invite you drop into the parish for private prayer anytime you are in the neighborhood during the day.

“Are we not afraid that he might take away something from us? ...If we let Christ into our lives, we lose nothing, absolutely nothing of what makes life free, beautiful, and great... Do not be afraid of Christ! He takes nothing away, and he gives you everything.”

Pope Benedict XVI Homily

Lord Jesus,

Let me bask in the glow of the countenance of your Holy Face!

Let the divine mercy of your Sacred Heart encompass me and give me hope!

Let me let nothing disturb the peace you give me!

Let Joy be with me always through the truth in your word and through your precious hands!

Let your passion heal me and strengthen my faith!

Let me be relentless in my humble pursuit of the reward of your generosity!

Amen!

The Sacraments Bring Jesus Into Our Lives

The Sacraments of the Church nourish and strengthen our faith and draw us deep into the loving embrace of Christ. Please let us know how we can help you celebrate these special encounters with him.

Coming Home to Faith—Reconciliation

Perhaps you or someone you know has been away from the Church and feels awkward or as if you don't belong. The best way to come home is to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confessing your own loss and confusion and receiving absolution of your sins frees you to enter fully into the life of the Church. You may celebrate this sacrament at any of our regularly scheduled times or call to make a private appointment with Fr. Bart at 833-2600.

Anointing of the Sick

When people are seriously ill or hospitalized, the Sacrament is celebrated individually. We urge you to contact us prior to hospitalization for elective surgery if you would like to be anointed. Let us know if someone is seriously ill or homebound and would like to receive the Sacraments or a home visit.

Confirmation

Many adults never celebrated Confirmation and have missed out on the strengthening the Holy Spirit provides. Contact Jenny Ludtke to learn about the preparation and celebration of Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. Jenny also leads our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults for those seeking adult baptism or becoming Catholic.

Matrimony

The fidelity and love of a married couple is a special sign for us of Jesus' promise to be with the Church always. We take great joy in helping couples prepare for the sacrament. If you plan to become engaged or have been civilly married and want to marry in the Church, please contact Erik Gyr for more information about our preparation opportunities.

Baptism and Sacraments for Children

Lorianne Aubut works with families with young children. If you seek baptism of a newborn or if you have an older child who is not baptized or seeks Penance or Eucharist we are happy to work with you and welcome your child.
