The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity
June 16, 2019

Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad
16 de Junio de 2019

Fr. Bart Timmerman, Pastor

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Trinity Sunday is a moveable feast celebrated a week after Pentecost Sunday. Also known as Holy Trinity Sunday, Trinity Sunday honors the most fundamental of Christian beliefs—belief in the Holy Trinity. The human mind can never fully understand the mystery of the Trinity, but we can sum it up in the following formula: God is three Persons in one Nature. There is only one God, and the three Persons of God—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—are all equally God, and They cannot be divided.

Happy Father's Day!

We give thanks and praise to God for fathers young and old today as we celebrate Father's Day. We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; may they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice. We pray for our own fathers who have done so much for us by the sacrifices they made for us and especially how they have helped us grow in our faith. We pray also for fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We remember in prayer today also men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

In a special way we remember fathers, grandfathers, and great-grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

We thank the men of St. Thomas Aquinas Parish for all they have done and continue to do for our parish family. Their example of faithfulness has helped us to grow into who we are today: Happy Father's Day!

Prayer to St. Joseph for Fathers

Saint Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty.

You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands.

Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you.

You know their aspirations, their hardships, and their hopes.

They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them.

You too knew trial, labor and weariness.

But amid the worries of material life, your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother.

Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone.

Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over Him faithfully as you have done.

Amen.

Outside Review of Diocese of Madison Clergy Files

As part of its commitment to protect children and young people and be open and transparent with victims, faithful Catholics, and the wider community, the Diocese of Madison has requested an independent security and investigations firm to do a full review of all diocesan personnel files. A copy of the announcement is at the back of this bulletin, on our website at stamadison.org/outside-review, on Facebook, and in the Catholic Herald. Let us pray for all victims of sexual abuse and that this review may help bring healing to our Church.

Prayer for Life

For work towards medical and scientific advancement: May God's Spirit of truth guide these efforts, that discoveries may never come at the expense of human life;

We pray to the Lord:

Prayer for Justice

For solutions to increasingly devastating storms that threaten human life: May the Holy Spirit guide us to change behaviors that contribute to the destruction of God's creation and advocate for policies that will save the life of our planet. We pray to the Lord:

Food Sunday Lussier Food Helpers

The Human Concerns Commission is looking for more helpers to deliver our Food Sunday Collections to the Lussier Food Pantry after 10 AM Mass on Sunday, June 23, August 18, and October 20.

The team leader will need to call the Lussier Center and make arrangements to drop off the food on Sunday and find a few helpers. All helpers are welcome, as this would be a great family project!

For more information and to get signed up for one of these dates please contact Denny and Sara Marx at 608-836-1134 to learn more.

Reflection from Seminarian Vince Racanelli

Several weeks ago, in our reflection on confirmation, we saw how the sacramental seal is a promise of grace, and today we'll pick up there again. We can use the image of fire from Pentecost to understand the grace of confirmation. St. Paul draws on this imagery, reminding Timothy to “stir into flame the gift of God that you have through the imposition of my hands” (2 Timothy 1:6). While Paul refers here to the graces of holy orders, the principle still holds for confirmation. How then do we “stir into flame” the graces of our confirmation?

Firstly, we can call on the Holy Spirit to ask for specific graces when we bear witness to Jesus. This is like blowing on the embers of the fire. But we can also ask, how big is our figurative fire to begin with, and how well do we maintain it? We can maintain and even add fuel to the fire through daily prayer, reading of the scriptures, and growth in virtue, among other ways. And, when our sins put the fire out, we can relight the fire by going to confession, which clears out the obstacles and allows us to more effectively receive grace. That way, we are more prepared to work with Jesus in His mission to “cast fire on the earth” (Luke 12:49), the fire of divine love.

Cuando examinamos el sacramento de la confirmación en las semanas pasadas, vimos que el sello sacramental es una promesa de gracia, y hoy empezamos con esa promesa. Podemos usar la imagen del fuego de Pentecostés para comprender la gracia de la confirmación. San Pablo utiliza esa imaginación para recordarle a Timoteo que “tienes que reavivar el don de Dios que recibiste por la imposición de mis manos” (2 Timoteo 1:6). Aunque San Pablo refiere específicamente a la gracia del sacramento de las sagradas órdenes, el principio aplica todavía en el caso de la gracia de la confirmación. Entonces, ¿cómo reavivamos la gracia de la confirmación?

Primero, podemos apelar al Espíritu Santo para pedir gracias específicas cuando testificamos a nuestra fe en Jesucristo. Es como soplar en las pavesas del fuego. Podemos preguntarnos también, ¿qué tan grande es el fuego de nuestra fe en el primer lugar? y ¿cómo lo mantenemos? Podemos mantener y aumentar el fuego de la fe por medio de la oración diaria y la lectura de la biblia, y por medio de crecer en las virtudes. Cuando el pecado personal apaga el fuego, lo podemos encender de nuevo por el sacramento de la confesión para quitar los obstáculos que impiden la recepción de la gracia. En ese modo, podemos estar más preparados para trabajar con Jesús en su misión de “traer fuego a la tierra” (Lucas, 12:49), el fuego del amor divino.

Prayer Warriors Needed

Our beloved pastor, Fr. Bart, like all priests, is in need of our continued prayers. The Seven Sisters Apostolate at STA is looking for women who would be willing to offer an hour of prayer each week for Fr. Bart and his intentions. This is a beautiful ministry! Visit their website: sevensistersapostolate.org for more information. Contact Alison Robak at robak717@gmail.com if you're interested.

Intergenerational Play Group

We invite all parents with young children to join us for our once-a-month Intergenerational Music Group at Oakwood Village senior care center's Memory Care Unit. This free class is provided by the staff at Oakwood Village and allows our children and the memory care residents to enjoy music together following a Musikgarten youth curriculum. We meet the first Monday of each month at 10:30 AM. We would love to have you try a class with us this summer. Contact Lauren at laurenwiesen11@gmail.com or 781-915-4461 with questions or if you want to be added to the email list.

Young Adults: An Evening with Bishop Hying

Thursday, June 20, 7-9PM

Young adults are invited to join us for a short video talk by Bishop Donald Hying, called the Anima Series: We are all longing for a sense of greater meaning in our lives. In the ANIMA series, Bishop Donald Hying leads us through an inspiring account of how God's plan for the world gives each of us great dignity and purpose. He recounts that through Christ's Incarnation, Resurrection, and the Institution of the Church, God reveals the meaning of all life. This three-part series will instigate further meditation on how you can respond to Christ's sacrifice and continue carrying out his mission in his Church.

Join us for this fascinating exploration, and check out the young adult facebook page to stay in the loop on lots of happenings: facebook.com/STAMadisonYA/.

Are you a new member of our parish? Have you been a member of the parish for a time, but have never explored our parish home? This is your opportunity to get a tour of our parish campus! Please contact Holly Irving if you would like a tour!

Looking for Wood-workers and Seamstresses to Support Our Religious Education Program

For the last few years, St. Thomas Aquinas has been introducing the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd approach to faith formation in our Elementary Religious Education program. Catechesis of the Good Shepherd uses Scripture stories and hands-on experiences in a quiet space of prayer and learning called an “atrium” to help the children have meaningful encounters with the Gospel and the liturgy and sacrament life of the Church.

We are expanding our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) space by creating a second atrium, and we need new materials for it! The items we need are available for purchase, but before spending parish money on them, we would like to see if anyone in the parish can help by making them for us!

To ensure these items fit into the program, everything has to be made in a specific style and be a specific size, so we have detailed instructions on how to create all the materials we need. If you are interested and available, please contact CGS catechist Maegan Simmons at (920) 750-8408 or maegan.smiley@gmail.com.

If you want to support the program and are not good with sewing and woodwork, donations are welcome as well. Please make a check out to STA with a note saying your gift is for CGS donation. Thank you for your consideration!

Somos una parroquia Católica donde las personas presencian a Jesucristo de una manera que cambia la manera en la que viven.

Padre Bart Timmerman, Párroco

Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad

La Santísima Trinidad es una celebración que se puede mover a después del Domingo de Pentecostés. El Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad honra las creencias Cristianas más fundamentales – la creencia de la Trinidad. La mente humana nunca podrá entender el misterio de la Trinidad, pero podemos colocarlo de esta manera: Dios en tres Personas en una Naturaleza. Existe un sólo Dios, y las tres Personas de Dios – el Padre, el Hijo, y el Espíritu Santo – todos igualmente Dios, y Ellos no pueden ser divididos.

¡Feliz Día de los Padres!

Le damos gracias a Dios por todos nuestros padres, jóvenes y mayores, mientras celebramos el Día de los Padres. Oramos hoy por los padres jóvenes, quiénes han acogido su vocación de padre con valentía y perseverancia para balancear el trabajo, la familia, y la fe con alegría y sacrificio. Oramos hoy por nuestros propios Padres, quiénes han hecho tantos sacrificios por nosotros y quiénes nos han ayudado a crecer en la fe. Oramos por todos los padres alrededor del mundo, los cuales tienen hijos sufriendo o perdidos; para que Dios con compasión los consuele en su sufrimiento.

Gracias a todos los hombres y padres de nuestra Parroquia de Santo Tomás de Aquino, quiénes continuamente hacen tanto por nuestra familia parroquial. Su ejemplo de fe nos ayuda a crecer en quienes somos hoy. ¡Feliz Día de los Padres!
