Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Decimoséptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
July 28, 2019 | 28 de julio de 2019

Fr. Bart Timmerman, Pastor

Seventeenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

In Luke's Gospel, we see Jesus at prayer many times. He prays at His Baptism, after healing people, before choosing the twelve disciples, and before feeding the five thousand, to name only a few. Those closest to him in the Gospel have witnessed his life of prayer, and we can sense their desire to have what Jesus has in the request, "Lord, teach us to pray." Jesus' response is the beloved words of the Our Father and several teachings on prayer. In our life of faith we are called to pray at all times. Sometimes these prayers are the traditional words passed down through generations of faith, but other times they are our own unique communication. Just like the disciples in today's Gospel, let us trustingly request of Jesus, "Lord, teach us to pray."

10 Prayers to Teach Your Children (and Grandchildren)

1. The Sign of the Cross: Most basic that should always be said with reverence.
2. Our Father: Your children will hear this prayer at every Mass they attend.
3. Hail Mary: Children naturally gravitate to Mary & this prayer fosters devotion to her.
4. Glory Be: A short hymn of praise to God.
5. Guardian Angel Prayer: A prayer for protecting your child.
6. Table Blessing: Instills a sense of gratitude and reminds us that all we have comes from God.
7. Act of Contrition: An important prayer for the Sacrament of Reconciliation and before bedtime.
8. Act of Faith: Excellent prayer to pray each morning.
9. Act of Hope: Great prayer for before a test at school.
10. Act of Love: Primarily expresses love for God, it is also a reminder to love others.

Thank You Deacon Vince Racanelli

This weekend we say farewell to Dcn. Vince who has been with us for three months as he experienced his summer diaconal assignments here at STA! I pray that his time among us was a positive experience for him as he continues in his formation for the priesthood. We look forward to his ordination to the priesthood in June 2020 and continue to offer our prayerful support to him and all of our seminarians. After each Mass this weekend we will be having a light reception to wish him well as he concludes his time with us.

Help Us Welcome Bishop Hying to St. Thomas Aquinas!

Please plan to attend our bilingual Mass on Thursday, August 15 at 6:30 PM as we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary into Heaven with Bishop Hying.

In case you have not attended a bilingual Mass, I want to explain that some parts of the Mass will be in English and some will be in Spanish. We rely heavily on our Missalettes during the Mass so people can follow along easily no matter what language they speak. The only part of the Mass that is repeated in both languages is the Homily. Usually the homily is shorter, but shared in both languages.

Bishop Hying has been making a great effort to visit all the parishes and people of our diocese. I hope we can also make a great effort to be present for Mass on the Holy Day to welcome him. Please make sure to add your prayer to the gift of the Spiritual Bouquet we are offering to the Bishop by emailing Clarice Hinrichs.

Prayer for Life

For all who suffer because of participation in abortion: May they come to know the mercy of God, who longs to forgive all our transgressions through the saving power of the Cross; We pray to the Lord:

Prayer for Justice

For all who are healing from their participation in abortion: That they may find solace in God's mercy and work tirelessly for legislation that will protect the unborn. We pray to the Lord:

Mass Times for Assumption

Holy Day of Obligation

Thursday, August 15

Check out our new EXTRA EARLY morning Mass!

Mass times: 6:30 AM and 12:10 PM in English. 6:30 PM will be bilingual with Bishop Hying celebrating. A light reception and a "meet and greet" will follow the Mass.

There will be no 7:30 AM OR 8:30 AM Mass that day. This change is intended to make it easier for people with jobs in the daytime and busy evenings to attend Mass before their work day starts.

Exchange Student Looking for a Catholic Host Family

We received an inquiry from the Aspect Foundation, an international exchange student non-profit organization. They're trying to find a host family for one of their exchange students from Ecuador who will be coming to study in the United States for the 2019-2020 school year.

Maria (services.aspectfoundation.org/st/index.php/st_search/profile/UY9-EIL-002-F) is very active in her Catholic Church community at home in Ecuador, and so they're looking to match Maria with a host family within the Catholic community in the wider Madison area.

If you are interested and willing to host Maria, please contact Mr. Brent King, Director of the Office of Communications, at 608-821-3033 or communication@madisondiocese.org.

Reflection from Dcn. Vince Racanelli

Evangelization: the Mission of the Church

As we have seen, as disciples Jesus calls us to evangelize. Now, there are two aspects to evangelization I want to highlight: evangelization is both Catholic and personal. Growing up, I used to think of evangelization as something that protestant street preachers did, like the ones you sometimes see shouting at the passersby on the UW campus. But the truth is that evangelization is and always has been the mission of the Catholic Church (though Protestants evangelize too). From the earliest apostles to the present day, the Catholic Church has proclaimed Jesus Christ, crucified and risen from the dead, for the forgiveness of sins.

While Jesus and many of the saints did preach to large numbers of people, including passersby (like Paul in Athens), evangelization is a deeply personal task. We are not just looking to pad our numerical statistics; as disciples of Jesus, we care about the struggles, wounds, and desires of those around us. Thus, evangelization is costly. It requires us to invest time, attention, and patience in our neighbors to lead them to Jesus, who alone is the One who frees us from sin, heals our wounds, and who grants us the fullness of the joy and peace for which we are created.

Evangelización: la misión de la Iglesia

Como hemos visto, Jesús nos llama a evangelizar. Hay dos aspectos de la evangelización que quiero enfatizar: la evangelización es algo católico y personal. Cuando crecía, pensaba que la evangelización fue algo para los predicadores protestantes en la calle, como los predicadores que a veces se puede ver gritando en el campus de UW. Pero la verdad es que la evangelización es y siempre ha sido la misión de la Iglesia Católica. Desde el periodo de los apóstoles hasta el día de hoy, la Iglesia Católica ha proclamado Jesucristo, crucificado y resucitado de la muerte, por el perdón de los pecados.

Aunque Jesús y mucho de los santos sí predicaron a las muchedumbres, como San Pablo hizo en Atenas, la evangelización es una misión muy personal. Nuestra meta no es solamente mejorar las estadísticas. Como discípulos de Jesús, nos importan las pruebas, los daños, y los deseos de nuestros prójimos. Así, la evangelización es algo costoso. Requiere que dediquemos tiempo, atención, y paciencia en nuestros prójimos para guiarlos a Jesús, quien es el único que puede librarnos del pecado y sanar todos los daños, y quien nos da la plenitud del alegría y de la paz por las cuales nos creó.

Visiting Missionary Priest

Next weekend, August 3 and 4, Fr. Daniel Maurer, C.J.D., from the Most Holy Mother of God parish in Vladivostok, Russia, will visit our parish to speak about the Roman Catholic Mission Churches in Eastern Russia. A second offering will be taken for the missions.

In the early 1900's, the Russian Far East boasted a thriving Roman Catholic population. Many Russians, Poles, Lithuanians, and other groups inhabited the area and had built schools, hospitals, and beautiful churches. After the revolution of 1917, Russia became an emblem of the Communist era, a land without churches and without God. Under Stalin, all Catholic churches were confiscated and Dioceses closed. Most churches were desecrated or destroyed. Catholics were murdered by the hundreds of thousands and their bodies dumped into mass graves.

Two American priests, Fr. Myron Effing, CJD, and our visiting priest, Fr. Daniel, arrived in Vladivostok in 1992 to help re-establish the Church in this region and provide charitable assistance to the many poor. Now that the foundations have been laid, additional priests and sisters are joining the work, and parishes are growing and multiplying, very slowly, but surely.

For the latest news on activities of the mission and the Catholic Church in Russia please visit the website at www.vladmission.org.

World Day Against Trafficking,

In recognition of World Day Against Trafficking on July 30, the Justice and Peace Committee asks all to pray for those impacted by human trafficking. We also encourage saying three Hail Mary's daily for both the victims and the perpetrators of sex trafficking.

Righteous God,

Oh God, we didn't see them. But you did—

The hundreds and thousands of human beings trafficked each year to join the millions who are trapped in modern-day slavery.

Under terrible conditions, they work in factories, plow fields, harvest crops, work quarries, fill brothels, clean homes, and haul water.

Many are children with tiny fingers for weaving rugs and small shoulders for bearing rifles. Their labor is forced, their bodies beaten, their faces hidden from those who don't really want to see them.

But you see them all, God of the poor. You hear their cry and you answer by opening our eyes, and breaking our hearts and loosening our tongues to insist: No more. No more.

Amen

Interested in Becoming Catholic? Learn about RCIA!

If you are not Catholic, and are curious about what it would take to possibly become one, we would love to talk with you.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process that gives you an opportunity to learn about our Catholic faith and Sacred Scripture, grow closer to God through prayer, and help you decide about receiving the sacraments and becoming a member of the Catholic Church. Make a short one-on-one appointment to learn more by contacting Jenny Ludtke.

Sacrament of Baptism

At St. Thomas Aquinas we celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism in very joyful ways, together as one parish family. It is the moment your child is received into the Catholic Church and becomes a child of God. If your family is looking to celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism for your child, please contact Lorianne Aubut.

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

The Diocese of Madison Office of Worship continues to host workshops for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion throughout the Diocese. Our next scheduled sessions are on Wednesday, July 31 (7-8:30 PM) at St. Bernard Parish in Middleton and on Wednesday, September 18 (7-8:30 PM) at Sacred Hearts in Sun Prairie. We are currently scheduling additional dates in Madison and throughout the Diocese.

Please register online at madisondiocese.org/EMHC or call (608) 821-3081. There is no fee for the workshop.

The workshop includes a session reflecting on the Eucharist as well as practical information for those who assist in the distribution of Communion in the parish. These workshops fulfill the requirements of our diocesan norms that each EMHC attend a diocesan workshop. There is no charge for participation.

Funeral Luncheon Helpers Needed

Do you have two – four hours you want to volunteer when it fits your schedule? Our funeral luncheon helpers are looking for more help with set-up, prep, serve, and clean-up. They ask for a minimum of two hours for prep, serve, and/or clean-up. When we are planning for a funeral a volunteer will call to ask if you can work or make salad and/or dessert and you say yes or no based on your schedule that week! We have had 13 funerals this year and three of them were in the month of June so we are not asking for regular commitment.

Help! Weeds keep growing! Hands are needed!

Ismael does an amazing job keeping our parish grounds lovely, but could use a hand with weeding various flowerbeds. This is a lovely way for families or individuals to offer some service. It can be done at any time of the day and would be very appreciated! If you are interested in learning more, or lending a hand, contact Terri Kopplin

Saving God's Butterflies

God's beautiful monarch butterflies are threatened with extinction in the near future. The St. Thomas Aquinas Care of Creation Team would like to do our part in helping to save them. We are considering starting a Butterfly Garden on the St. Thomas Aquinas grounds. We are looking for someone with expertise to lead the project and volunteers (families welcome) to help plant and tend the garden over time. We are hoping to propose a location on our campus, determine costs and begin the project this fall. If you are interested in participating in any way, please contact Trudi Jenny at trudijenny@yahoo.com or 217-4469.

Urgent Need For Blood! Blood Drive

On Thursday, August 8, Our Lady Queen of Peace will be hosting a blood drive for the American Red Cross. At this time there is an urgent need for blood donations as donations are being used faster than they are being collected and with the summer months donations are down. Patients are at risk for delayed surgeries or procedures.

The blood drive event will run from 2PM-6PM and be held in the school auditorium. Please mark the event on your calendar and visit the American Red Cross website redcrossblood.org to register as a donor.

Leaving a Lasting Legacy

Many parishioners make contributions outside the parish because we have not asked them for their help. Bequests to the parish, gifts of life insurance, stocks, bonds, and certificates of deposit can help perpetuate your faith commitment. Please remember the ongoing and long range needs which exist here at St. Thomas Aquinas Parish. For specific areas which could benefit your gift, please contact Holly Irving

Ministers of Hospitality & Greeters needed

One of the most basic gestures a parish can do it to be a welcoming parish. We have a great group of ministers of hospitality and several greeters. Our parish is in need of more Ministers of Hospitality at the 4:30PM and 10:00AM Mass each weekend. Greeters are needed at every Mass. If you could help by being a Minister of Hospitality or a Greeter, please contact Holly Irving.

Parroquia Santo Tomás de Aquino
Ama a Dios. Ama a los Demás. Haz Discípulos!
 Somos una parroquia Católica donde las personas presencian a Jesucristo de una manera que cambia la manera en la que viven.

Padre Bart Timmerman, Párroco

Decimoséptimo Domingo del
 Tiempo Ordinario

En el Evangelio de Lucas, vemos a Jesús en oración muchas veces. El ora en su Bautizo, después de sanar a las personas, antes de escoger a los doce discípulos, antes de alimentar a los cinco mil, y en otras muchas veces. Aquellos quienes están más cerca de Él en el Evangelio vieron su vida de oración, y podemos ver que tiene un deseo al preguntarle a Jesús, “Señor, enséñanos a orar.” Jesús les enseña el Padre Nuestro y algunas enseñanzas sobre la oración. En nuestra vida de fe somos llamados a orar en todo momento. Algunas veces estas oraciones son tradicionales pasadas de generación a generación, pero otras veces las palabras que ofrecemos en oración son únicas y personales. Hagamos como hicieron los discípulos en el Evangelio de hoy, y pidámosle a Jesús, “Señor, enséñanos a orar.”

10 Oraciones que podemos enseñarle a nuestros hijos o nietos:

1. La Señal de la Cruz – la más básica que se debe hacer con reverencia.
2. El Padre Nuestro – ellos escucharán esta oración en cada Misa.
3. El Ave María – crea una devoción a María.
4. El Gloria – un corto himno hacia Dios.
5. Ángel de la Guarda – una oración para la protección de su hijo(a).
6. Acción de Gracia ante los alimentos – gratitud hacia todo lo que recibimos de Dios.
7. Acto de Contrición - oración importante del Sacramento de la Confesión y antes de dormir.
8. Acto de Fe – excelente oración para cada mañana.
9. Acto de Esperanza – oración para antes de comenzar un examen.
10. Acto de Amor- expresa primordialmente el amor por Dios.
