First Sunday of Advent
December 1, 2019
Primer Domingo de Adviento
1 de Diciembre de 2019
Gospel at our Sunday Masses. May this year be a fruitful year for us as we reflect on Matthew’s assembly. It was written to be proclaimed to the end of the earth! Church and it was written to be proclaimed in the Liturgical Law. It is the only synoptic Gospel that explicitly mentions the Matthew’s desire to teach his community that Jesus is the fullness of descendent of Abraham and David, highlighting his royal heritage. Naming 14 generations in a genealogy showing Jesus as an Israelite, Gospel, Jesus is introduced to us in a traditional Jewish manner by the Old Testament, and brings them to their fullness. In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus is the true Master who has comprehensive knowledge of the Jewish Scriptures and Hebrew Law. He offers a new interpretation, which reaffirms the values of the Old Testament, and brings them to their fullness. In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus is introduced to us in a traditional Jewish manner by naming 14 generations in a genealogy showing Jesus as an Israelite, descendent of Abraham and David, highlighting his royal heritage. Matthew’s constant references to the Old Testament shows Matthew’s desire to teach his community that Jesus is the fullness of the law. It is the only synoptic Gospel that explicitly mentions the Church and it was written to be proclaimed in the Liturgical assembly. It was written to be proclaimed to the end of the earth! May this year be a fruitful year for us as we reflect on Matthew’s Gospel at our Sunday Masses.

Advent Preaching Series Theme: An Inviting Parish!

This Advent we will focus on the theme of being an inviting parish. Last year we focused on the theme of being a welcoming parish. Last year I was so pleased with the great efforts we all made to be a welcoming parish to those who are walking through our doors and joining us for Mass. I feel that we do a good job with welcoming. This year, we want to make an effort to not only welcome those who come to Mass here, but also invite people to come to Mass here. This is perhaps not as easy and may call us to step outside of our comfort zone.

Knowing my own uneasiness with inviting people to Mass, even as a priest, this calls me to stretch myself. But what motivates me, to take the step to invite, is that I know we have something beautiful to share. Not only do we have a beautiful Catholic faith, I feel that as a unique Catholic community of St. Thomas Aquinas, we have an extra special gift to share with others. Being a part of STA inspires my faith, challenges me to grow, and offers me a sense of belonging. We have been blessed and I would love for us to be able to share this with others, especially with those who are in need of God’s mercy and redeeming love.

Please be open to helping STA to be a parish that not only welcomes, but also invites. Being an inviting parish will help to evangelize our families and community and bring people to meet Jesus in a way that is life changing! By inviting others to join us for Mass, for Alpha, and for our Healing Ministry, we will take another step forward to realizing our vision of being an evangelizing parish made up of missionary disciples!

Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, Sunday, December 8

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is the Patronal Feast of the United States of America and is always a Holy Day of Obligation EXCEPT in the year when it falls on a Sunday. The Solemnity cannot “replace” the celebration of a Sunday in Advent, so the celebration is transferred to Monday, December 9. While the day remains a solemnity, the faithful are not obligated to attend Mass. Therefore we only have one Mass scheduled for the Immaculate Conception, which is on Monday, December 9 at 8:30 AM.

The Immaculate Conception is the conception of the Virgin Mary in the womb of her mother, St. Ann, free from original sin by the virtue of the merits of her Son, Jesus. The Catholic Church teaches that God acted upon Mary in the first moment of her conception, keeping her “immaculate,” without the stain of sin, including original sin. We need to be sure not to confuse Mary’s Immaculate Conception with the Virginal Conception of Jesus in Mary’s womb. It is also erroneous to think that Mary was conceived by the Holy Spirit in the way Jesus was. We know that Mary was conceived in the normal way and had two biological parents: St. Joachim and St. Ann. From the first instant of Mary’s existence she was in the state of sanctifying grace and was free from the corrupt nature original sin brings. This is why the Angel Gabriel greeted Mary and said, “Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you.”

Prayer Night: A Time of Adoration
Our 3 - 5 graders in Faith Formation had a beautiful night of adoration a couple of weeks ago. They had an opportunity to pray in silence, adore Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, pray with beautiful hymns and offer their own petitions before the living Christ.
STA parishioners, please continue to pray for all of our students in Faith Formation, for their families, and their deepest needs.

The Holiday Bake Sale Is Coming!
The STA annual Holiday Bake Sale will be the weekend of December 14 and 15 after all Masses. Proceeds help with the cost of grocery store gift cards that we include in our Christmas Baskets for neighborhood families. Each year, St. Thomas Aquinas delivers over 120 Baskets, so your help is essential.

When you do your holiday baking, consider making a double or triple batch and donating the extra to our sale. Stop by the sign-up table in the Gathering Area before or after Mass for information and to let us know what you are bringing.
Please contact Holly Irving if you have questions.

Leaving a Lasting Legacy
Planning for death is as natural as planning for life. Having a will is good stewardship of your assets. Take care of your family and consider your parish family in your preparations.

Thank you to all who gave money to St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in memory of Ken Opitz:
- Royal Gibson
- Gregg Gibson
- Peter and Sandra Renner.

Celebrating Your Generosity
We appreciate the thoughtfulness of parishioners who have left bequests to the parish. These gifts help us to build a solid foundation for future generations! We are also very grateful to those who donated to the Make Disciples Capital Campaign! Your generosity has been overwhelming!

Advent begins!

As we begin the season of Advent, we begin a new Liturgical Year! Each week during our Entrance procession, we will hear the chant, “Veni, Veni Emmanuel/O Come, O Come Emmanuel,” and then sing together, “Come, Emmanuel.” "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel!" is a text that was originally written in Latin, based on the O Antiphons, a series of plain-chant antiphons sung at Vespers/Evening Prayer during the final days before Christmas. The 1861 translation by John Mason Neale from Hymns Ancient and Modern is the most prominent by far in the English-speaking world.

Veni, Veni, Emmanuel/O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

Veni, veni Emmanuel! Captivum solve Israel!
Qui gemit in exilio, Privatus Dei Filio,
Gaude, gaude, Emmanuel nascetur pro te, Israel.

O come, O come, Emmanuel, And ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here, Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel Shall come to thee, O Israel.

Come, Emmanuel (Tony Alonso)

Awake now, friends, the time is near (Come, O Come Emmanuel) Soon the Lord of life will appear (Come, O Come Emmanuel) Stay awake, prepare God’s way (Come, O Come Emmanuel) This is what the scriptures say (Come, O Come Emmanuel)
Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel; Shall come to you, O Israel
Let us see your living face (Come, O Come Emmanuel) Sons and daughters of one living race (Come, O Come Emmanuel) Show us mercy, show us love (Come, O Come Emmanuel) Send salvation from above (Come, O Come Emmanuel)
Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel; Shall come to you, O Israel
God’s glory now shall be revealed (Come, O Come Emmanuel) The blind will see the sick be healed (Come, O Come Emmanuel) All will sing together in peace (Come, O Come Emmanuel) All will sit together at the feast (Come, O Come Emmanuel)
Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel; Shall come to you, O Israel
Rejoice, rejoice, Emmanuel; Shall come to you, O Israel

i.d:9:16 Young Adult Discipleship Night

December 5

All young adults are welcome to our fourth Disciples' Night, which includes Mass, dinner, a livestream talk, and discussion.

This month we continue our series on the Beatitudes with "Blessed are the Poor in Spirit". When everything is stripped away, who are we before God? Though earthly possessions have value, they can easily distract and draw our attention off of God and onto ourselves. Being poor in Spirit means we will inherit the Kingdom, but how do we actually live this way? Ed Conlin will share personal stories and practical insights of living with true poverty of Spirit. Ed is a lifelong committed brother of the Servants of the Word. He serves the homeless, the mentally ill, and addicts of Detroit. In his spare time, he does freelance counseling for the Sword of the Spirit and loves worship and music.

What to expect: 6:00 pm Mass 6:30 pm Dinner & Drinks 7:00 pm Speaker/Q&A (via livestream in conjunction with other chapters nationwide.) 8:00 pm Fellowship

Your Invitation To Learn About becoming Catholic
If you are not Catholic, and are curious about what it would take to possibly become one, we would love the opportunity to talk with you. RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is a process that gives you an opportunity to learn about the Catholic faith and Sacred Scripture, grow closer to God through prayer, and help you come to a decision about receiving the sacraments and becoming a member of the Catholic Church. This year, RCIA will be taking place on Wednesday evenings. Make a short one-on-one appointment to learn more by contacting Jenny Ludtke.
Are you Catholic already, but never received the Sacrament of Confirmation? Listen to the Spirit calling! There is a preparation process for adults who have been practicing their Catholic faith, and are now looking to celebrate Confirmation. The first step is to reach out to Jenny Ludtke!
Our Lady of Guadalupe

The Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe presents the Catholic Faith in a way that was immediately understood and accepted by the native Mexican Indians. It is impossible to describe fully the rich symbolism contained on the Tilma of Juan Diego because every detail of color and of form carries a theological message.

Our Lady’s hair, parted in the middle and hanging loosely, indicates she is a virgin maiden.

Scientific analysis has shown reflections of people in the Virgin’s eyes, just as any human eye would reflect. There are 13 total figures (including Juan Diego and Bishop Zumarraga) that form two scenes in both eyes.

One can see a cross in the center of the medallion that she carries on the upper part of her dress. This manifests her consecration to her Son Jesus, whose cross reminds us of both His total sacrifice for love and the moment when he gives us Mary as our Mother.

The symbol of the Cross was seen on the sails of the Spaniards’ ships.

The Virgin’s identity as a woman of heaven and earth is affirmed by her garments’ colors and decorations: her reddish tunic is the color symbolic of earth, while the star-speckled green-blue mantle symbolizes the heavens. The mantle’s color indicates her royalty, since only the Aztec emperors could wear cloaks of that color. The Virgin, Queen of heaven and earth, points us toward the truth that God is love, and mankind is the recipient of His love.

The 8-petaled flowers symbolize the day of new creation. The ‘blossom’ is in the form of a hill, and the stem is presented as a river. The “hillwater” represented the concept of civilization. The hill represents the highest point of encounter between God and man. Viewed upside down, the flower/stem takes the form of a heart - source of life, which belongs to and has its origin in God.

Our Lady stands on the moon. The crescent moon symbolized the Aztec god Quetzalcoatl, the feathered serpent moon god. She has clearly crushed and defeated him. The Virgin’s shoe, which appears over the moon, has no color, but is simply the raw tilma. This is inexplicable.

The stars on her mantle signify she comes from heaven - the Queen of Heaven. The constellations are in the exact position as appeared before dawn on the morning of December 12, 1531.

Her hands are joined in prayer and, therefore, she is not God but clearly there is one greater than she, and she points her finger to the cross on her brooch.

The image of Our Lady of Guadalupe depicts a dark ribbon above her womb, indicating that she is a women anticipating the birth of God’s only Son. The Spanish expression is encinta, “adorned with ribbon.”

In the center of her tunic, overlying her womb, is a four petal jasmine flower which is the sign of the Divine and the center of the cosmic order to the Aztec. The Virgin’s Baby, Jesus, is Divine and the true center of the universe.

The 4-petaled flowers with leaves on her tunic symbolize to the Aztecs that the fifth-age, the Age of Peace, has begun.

Our Lady stands in front of the sun. The sun symbolized the greatest Aztec god - Huatucoapochtli. She announces the God who is greater than their sun god.

An angel with eagle’s wings supports the Mother of God. The eagle was the “bird of the sun.” Here the angel is the messenger of the Virgin. The angel wears both a tunic of the same color and a brooch like hers. The angel holds her mantle in one hand and the robe with the other, signifying the Son she bears is from both heaven and earth.
Mother of America

The well authenticated story of the five apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary is briefly related here:

1st Apparition: At dawn on December 9, 1531, Juan Diego, an Aztec convert, was going to Tlatelolco to attend catechism classes and Holy Mass. As he was passing Tepeyac Hill, he saw birds on the summit and heard the strains of celestial music. Filled with wonder, he stopped. Then he heard a feminine voice asking him to ascend. When he reached the top he saw the Blessed Virgin Mary standing in the midst of a glorious light, in heavenly splendor. The beauty of her youthful countenance and her look of loving kindness filled Juan Diego with unspeakable happiness as he listened to the words which she spoke to him in his native language. She told him she was the perfect and ever Virgin Mary, Mother of the true God, and made known to him her desire that a shrine be built there where she could demonstrate her love, her compassion and her protection. "For I am your merciful Mother", she said, "to you and to all mankind who love me and trust in me and invoke my help. Therefore, go to the dwelling of the Bishop in Mexico City and say that the Virgin Mary sent you to make known to her her great desire."

2nd Apparition: The Bishop was reluctant to believe Juan Diego's story. Juan returned to Tepeyac Hill where he found the Blessed Virgin waiting for him, and told her of his failure. She bade him return to the Bishop the next day and repeat her wishes.

3rd Apparition: The Bishop then requested that the Lady give him a sign. Juan reported that evening and she promised to grant his petition on the following morning. But Juan was prevented from coming because of a sudden and severe illness of his uncle, Juan Bernardino.

4th Apparition: Two days later, on December 12, as he was going to the Church at Tlatelolco in order to bring a priest to his dying uncle, Juan Diego was stopped by the Lady, who had come down from Tepeyac Hill to meet him in the road. She listened quietly to Juan's excuse for not having kept his appointment with her the day before. When he had finished speaking she said, "It is well, littlest and dearest of my sons, but now listen to me. Do not let any afflic you and be not afraid of illness or pain. Am I not here who am your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection? Are you not in the crossing of my arms? Is there anything else you need? Do not fear for your uncle for he is not going to die. Be assured... he is already well."

Having heard these words, Juan Diego rejoiced and asked for the sign he was to take to the Bishop. He was told to climb to the top of the hill where she had spoken to him on three previous occasions. She said he would find many flowers blooming there which he was to cut and bring to her. Juan Diego did as he was told though he knew no flowers had ever bloomed before on the story summit. He discovered a marvelous garden of dew-fresh blossoms which he cut as she had asked. Placing them in his rough cloak, or tilma, he brought the flowers to the Lady who rearranged them and told him to take them to the Bishop; that this was the sign to persuade him to carry out her wishes.

When Juan Diego, radiantly happy, stood before Bishop Fray Juan de Zumárraga and told him of the fourth encounter with the Lady, he opened his tilma to show the Bishop the sign: the flowers cascaded to the floor - but to the astonishment of the Bishop and Juan Diego, there appeared upon the coarse fabric of Juan Diego's mantle a marvelously wrought, exquisitely colored portrait of the Blessed Virgin, just as Juan Diego had previously described her.

5th Apparition: Earlier that same day, December 12, she had also appeared to Juan's uncle, Juan Bernardino, and restored him to health as she had told Juan Diego. Juan Diego was at that time fifty-seven years old; his uncle was sixty-eight. Both had been among the first of the natives to be baptized into the true faith several years before.

The Name of Guadalupe
Juan Bernardino told his nephew the Blessed Virgin had ordered him to relate to the Bishop in what miraculous manner she had cured him. She also told Juan Bernardino her image was to be known as "Santa María de Guadalupe" and thus she has been venerated by this title for nearly five centuries.

The Mantle of Juan Diego
The mantle or tilma on which the Sacred Image of the Blessed Virgin is imprinted is handwoven from the fibers of the Ma-guey cactus, a fabric which has a life span of little more than thirty years. It is six-and-a-half feet long by forty-two inches wide and has a seam running down the middle.

The Sacred Image
Directly on this rough, burlap-like material is the exquisitely delicate figure of Our Lady, four feet, eight inches in height. This authentic portrait of the Virgin Mary has remained fresh and lovely for nearly five centuries and may be viewed today at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City where it occupies the place of honor above and behind the main altar.

The Codex
The Sacred Image is a codex, or picture writing; every detail is symbolic. She is brighter than the sun; her foot rests upon the moon; the stars on her mantle are in the same relative configurations to the stars in the heavens on the morning of December 12, 1531; the northern constellations on her right - the southern constellations on her left. Further, the golden filigree over her rose colored gown matches the topography of the Mexican lands once ruled by the Aztecs.

WORDS OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE TO JUAN DIEGO

"Know for certain, least of my sons, that I am the perfect and ever Virgin Mary, Mother of the True God through Whom everything lives, the Lord of all things near and far, the Master of heaven and earth. It is my earnest wish that a temple be built here to my honor. Here I will demonstrate, I will exhibit, I will give all my love, my compassion, my help and my protection to the people. I am your merciful mother, the merciful mother of all of you who live united in this land, and of all mankind, of all those who love me, of those who cry to me, of those who seek me, of those who have confidence in me. Here I will hear their weeping, their sorrow, and will remedy and alleviate all their multiple sufferings, necessities and misfortunes."
Thank you to all active and non active military members and their families that serve our country. We hold you in our heart and thank you for your service.

Please let Clarice (833-2600) know if there has been a change to the status of your family member.

The Meaning of Advent Candles

As a Christian tradition, the wreath holds the four Advent candles. The candles represent Jesus coming as the light in darkness. One candle is lit each Sunday until all four candles are lit, and sometimes a fifth candle is lit on Christmas. As Christmas draws nearer, each candle brings a little more light into the darkness.

Each of the candles represents an aspect of preparation during the season of Advent:

1. The Candle of Hope
   Color: Purple
   Purple is the primary color associated with Advent. Within the Catholic Church it symbolizes penance, preparation, and sacrifice. During the first week of Advent, we look forward to Jesus’ coming with hope.

2. The Candle of Peace
   Color: Purple
   During this second week of Advent, we reflect on our lives and work on becoming better-versions-of-ourselves in preparation for Jesus’ coming.

3. The Candle of Joy
   Color: Pink
   This third candle is pink, symbolizing anticipation and rejoicing. During the third week of Advent, we are filled with joy for the near arrival of Jesus on Christmas day.

4. The Candle of Love
   Color: Purple
   During this final week of Advent we rejoice in the endless love that God has for us, which is made apparent in the birth of his Son:

Padre Bart Timmerman, Párroco
Primer Domingo de Adviento - Año A
Este domingo comienza el nuevo año litúrgico de la Iglesia. Como saben, tenemos un ciclo de lecturas de tres años que escuchamos proclamado en la misa dominical. Ahora entramos en el ciclo de lecturas del año A. Este año, escucharemos el Evangelio de Mateo proclamado en la misa. Mateo fue escrito en los años 80 d.C., después del Evangelio de Marcos, por lo que vemos que utilizó el Evangelio de Marcos como un recurso, tradiciones orales y una tercera fuente. Mateo escribió el Evangelio para la comunidad de discípulos en Antioquía, Siria, que no conocieron a Jesús en persona, pero vivieron su fe en Jesús sin abandonar su fe judía, pero su creencia en Jesús como el Mesías los llevó a tener serios conflictos con sus compañeros judíos, especialmente los fariseos. Este conflicto se ve a lo largo del Evangelio. En el Evangelio de Mateo, Jesús es el verdadero Maestro que tiene un conocimiento integral de las Escrituras judías y la Ley hebreá. Él ofrece una nueva interpretación, que reafirma los valores del Antiguo Testamento y los lleva a su plenitud. En el Evangelio de Mateo, Jesús se nos presenta de una manera judía tradicional al nombrar a 14 generaciones en una genealogía que muestra a Jesús como un israelita, descendiente de Abraham y David, destacando su herencia judía. Las constantes referencias de Mateo al Antiguo Testamento muestran el deseo de Mateo de enseñar a su comunidad que Jesús es la plenitud de la ley. Es el único Evangelio sinóptico que menciona explícitamente a la Iglesia y fue escrito para ser proclamado en la asamblea litúrgica. ¡Fue escrito para ser proclamado hasta el fin de la tierra! Que este año sea fructífero para nosotros al reflexionar sobre el Evangelio de Mateo en nuestras misas dominicales.

Solemnidad de la Inmaculada Concepción, Domingo 8 de Diciembre
La solemnidad de la Inmaculada Concepción es la fiesta patronal de los Estados Unidos de América y siempre es un día sagrado de obligación. EXCEPTO en el año cuando cae un domingo. La solemnidad no puede "reemplazar" la celebración de un domingo de Adviento, por lo que la celebración se transfiere al lunes 9 de diciembre. Si bien el día sigue siendo solemne, los fieles no están obligados a asistir a misa. Por lo tanto, solo tenemos una misa programada para la Inmaculada Concepción, que es el lunes 9 de diciembre a las 8:30 AM.

La Inmaculada Concepción es la concepción de la Virgen María en el vientre de su madre, Santa Ana, libre del pecado original por la virtud de los méritos de su Hijo, Jesús. La Iglesia Católica enseña que Dios actuó sobre María en el primer momento de su concepción, manteniéndola "inmaculada", sin la mancha del pecado, incluido el pecado original. Debemos asegurarnos de no confundir la Inmaculada Concepción de María con la Concepción Virginal de Jesús en el vientre de María. También es erróneo pensar que María fue concebida por el Espíritu Santo como lo fue Jesús. Sabemos que María fue concebida de la manera normal y tenía dos padres biológicos: San Joaquín y Santa Ana. Desde el primer instante de la existencia de María, ella estaba en estado de gracia santificante y estaba libre de la naturaleza corrupta que trae el pecado original. Es por eso que el Ángel Gabriel saludó a María y dijo: "Salve, llena de gracia, el Señor está contigo".

Oración por la Vida
Por todos los fieles: que Dios nos ayude a construir una cultura de la vida esperando vigilantes Su regreso; rogüemos al Señor:
St. Thomas Aquinas Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society Update

Last January two members of our St. Thomas Aquinas conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society met with a homeless man at the West Towne Food Court. He had been referred to us by a social worker after he had been shot several times in a drive-by shooting. His extended hospitalization resulted in the loss of his job and eventually the loss of his housing. He and his 5 children had been sleeping on the couches of friends for three months. He had found an apartment but needed help paying the security deposit. Our conference paid his landlord $500, which, along with donations from some other service agencies, allowed the family to move into their apartment. The father is again employed.

Helping this family was one of the highlights of the past year for our conference. Below is a summary of all the activities of our members in the fiscal year ending September 30, 2019.

Our members made 68 home visits in the past year, providing help to prevent a utility shutoff or eviction or providing furniture, diapers or just a friendly ear. We also met with 13 other homeless families or individuals.

Requests come from various sources, including our SVdP Service Center, referrals from parish staff, the Lussier Center or neighborhood caseworkers. We also receive calls directly from families in need. Last year we were contacted by 118 different individuals by phone.

Last year our conference spent a total of $19,378.00 assisting the poor. We got this money from several sources. We received a $10,000 grant from the parish Outreach Funding Board. The parish also gave us the proceeds from the Thanksgiving Day Mass collection, and gave us an additional $1000 to honor our Bishop Don Hying, who is also the national chaplain of our Society. Several parishioners made personal contributions. And our own members contribute money at each monthly meeting. In addition, we were able to distribute $7,449.51 in assistance provided by grants from the Madison SVdP District Council.

Here are some of the ways that we used the money entrusted to our conference:

- We paid security deposits so that 3 other homeless families could move into housing.
- We made rent payments so that 29 families could avoid eviction.
- We helped 29 families with utility payments to prevent potential shutoff.
- We provided furniture to 19 families and paid the cost of moving it to their residence if they had no way to transport it themselves.

Other highlights of the past year:

- In January one of our members, Ralph Middlecamp, received a Lifetime Achievement Award from in Business magazine for his work with the Society.
- In April one of our members, Kathleen Dare, received a Distinguished Service Award from the United Way for her work with the Society.
- In October one of our members, Mike Meehan, was elected to a 3 year term as president of the SVdP Madison Diocesan Council.
- We delivered 3065 pounds of food and non-perishable items to our SVdP Food Pantry from our 3rd Sunday parish food collections.
- We made up 300 gift tags and distributed gifts donated by parishioners during Advent.
- Together with 17 other conferences, we provided Christmas gifts to 466 children at our Little Drummer event in December.
- Together with 17 other conferences, we accepted over 2000 blanket donations before Masses as part of our January Recycle the Warmth collection.
- We co-hosted the annual Mother’s Day Baby Shower.
- We provided a chili supper to parishioners enrolled in Alpha this month.
Our current membership includes:

- 15 members who serve as home visitors
- 10 members who volunteer at Vinny’s Lockers, storing the belongings of 186 homeless individuals
- 13 members who pick up food donations from local grocery stores and deliver them to our SVdP Food Pantry
- 2 members who planted, weeded, and harvested 9,300 pounds of vegetables for our Food Pantry at the Lacy Food Pantry Garden in Fitchburg
- 7 members (who are also Knights of Columbus) who collected 17,269 pounds of donated produce from Farmer’s Markets and delivered it to our Food Pantry
- 8 members who volunteer as hosts, stockers and receptionists at our Food Pantry
- 2 members who volunteer at our SVdP pharmacy for the uninsured
- 2 members who volunteer at the County Jail tutoring inmates or joining them at Mass
- 3 members who volunteer at the Lussier Community Education Center

Since its founding in 2003 our conference has been able to provide 987 families with financial assistance totaling $217,480.25. We are extremely grateful to Fr. Bart, the parish staff, and our entire parish family for their continued support of our charitable work. We are also very thankful for the generosity of the many parishioners for their donations to our ministry.
